Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card, or sat quietly in a chair.
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words that anyone could say.
Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much whatever the part.

Jean Renee Buggs

June 2, 1956 - July 7, 2026

Jean Renee Buggs graced the world with her presence on June 2, 1956. As the cherished daughter of Helen Ruth Garrett (Anderson) and Roosevelt LeGrone, and the fourth of five siblings, she was nurtured within a loving family. Her early education in Denver Public Schools concluded at Manual High School, after which she pursued a fulfilling career as a nursing aide with Bayada Home Care, exemplifying compassion and dedication that endeared her to both her clients and colleagues.

Jean's life was a celebration in itself. Known affectionately as the life of the party, she possessed a zest for living that was infectious to those around her. From an early age, her love for dancing shone through, securing her a victory in her school's talent show when she was just in second grade. Jean relished in family gatherings, where laughter was abundant, and her culinary delights were eagerly anticipated, especially during her beloved Christmas and Thanksgiving celebrations.

Her family was her greatest pride. She adored her children – her son Andre Buggs, who precedes her in death, and her daughter, Aubriel “Weeda” McAllister. Together, they shared cherished moments watching the Denver Broncos and Nuggets, cooking, and delighting in each other's company.

Jean joins loved ones who have passed before, including her parents and her son Andre. Her spirit is carried forward by surviving family: her daughter, Aubriel “Weeda” McAllister; brothers, Alonzo “Butch” Buggs (Vanessa) and Eugene “Dooney” Jackson Jr. (Cynthia); sisters, Ruth York and Winnie “Marie” Glasper; granddaughters LaQuaya and Dre’Jhanae Buggs; her three great-grandchildren. She also leaves behind life-long friends Carla Sykes, Raychelle Cook, and John Cox, alongside countless nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends who will forever cherish her memory.

In Our Hearts

*We thought of you today.
But that is nothing new.
We thought about
you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart*
