A million times I miss you
Ten millions times I'll cry
If love alone could have saved you
You would have never died
In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still;
In my heart you hold a place
No other will ever fill

Love Stacey

Above the clouds, beyond the rain
There is a world that knows no pain
And here we'll meet with those we love
Who've gone to be with God above.

Love Naseer

THE OBITUARY

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF EUNICE C. HAMMONDS

On the evening of Sunday March 6, 2022; God called Eunice Covington Hammonds while he was residing at Caring Heart Nursing Home, to his heavenly home.

Eunice C. Hammonds was born on July 15, 1931 in Wadesboro North Carolina. He was the son of the late George Hammonds and Alberta Studivant. Eunice had two brothers and one sister. His brother George preceded him in death. His surviving siblings are Coralin Rosebud and Larry Hammonds.

Eunice attended Deep Creek Baptist Church in Anson County North Carolina. His favorite past time was listening to the Blues, playing the guitar, and he was an awesome basketball player. He was also a devoted sports fan. He loved watching the Philadelphia Eagles and the Philadelphia 76ers play.

Eunice was educated in the North Carolina public school system. He graduated from Deep Creek High School and later enlisted in the United States Army on April 9, 1950. He served his country for 6 years. He received the Army of Occupation Medal (Germany), the National Defense Service Medal. The Good Conduct Medal and an Honorable Discharge. Upon leaving the army he traveled to Philadelphia where he met and married the late Barbara Hammonds; who he affectionately called Bobbie. From this union came two children the late Bonita Revell and Pamela Hammonds. He also has two surviving daughters from previous relationships Patricia Little-Tyson and Carol Quiller

Eunice worked several jobs after his military discharge. He was a candy line worker at Whitman, a garage attendant at School Lane House Apartments where he worked for 30 years before retiring. Eunice decided to go back to work stating that it made him feel young and he worked at Sam's Club until his health began to decline.

Eunice was a great provider for his family. He was a great and loving husband; father, brother, uncle, grandfather, a great grandfather, a great-great-grandfather, and God father. He had many titles Daddy, Pop Daddy Hammond, Pop-Pop and Uncle Hammonds.

Those left to cherish his fond memory are his loving daughters, Patricia Little-Tyson (NC), Carol Miller and husband Fredrick Miller, sister in law Valerie Denise Quiller, grandchildren, Joseph Little, Stacey Little-Henry and husband Larry Henry Sr, Tabatha Hamilton and husband Phil Hamilton, Damion Miller and wife Shenikki Miller, Walter Shareef Quiller and fiancé Bionca Johnson, Val Quiller- Williams and husband Brandon Williams and Felicity Hammonds. Great grandchildren Victoria Little-Gonzalez and husband Alfanso Gonzalez, Nyeder Stokely-Little, Naseer Carter-Little, Jeremiah McCalister, Christian Quiller, Brandy Williams, Danni Cheek, Joel Miller, Phil Hamilton Jr. Nah'la Tyesha Quiller and Rian Miller. Great -great grandson: Yah'Seem Falu, God children Mary Beth Davis Michael Walker, Troy Davis and Lakisha Davis and a host of nieces and nephews, cousins and family members. Also special friends; Sandra Reynolds-Webster, Peggy Guase, Ernest Greene and Mae Carter

MEASURE OF A MAN

Not, How did he die?

But, How did he live?

Not, What did he gain?

But, What did he give?

Not, What was his station?

But, Had he a heart?

And, How did he play his God-given part?

Not, What was his shrine?

Nor, What was his creed?

But, Had he befriended those really in need?

Not, What did the piece in the newspaper say?

But, How many were sorry when he passed away?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer,

To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

These are the units to measure the worth,

Of a man as a man, regardless of birth.

Love You, The Family
