A LETTER TO MY SON

I am not sure where to start. I am broken, my heart is shattered. My mind is gone. This is a pain that will never heal. I want you to know that I am so proud of you, you are an amazing young man. I want you to know that you mean the world to me. From the day I heard your heartbeat until my last breath you will forever be my son. You gave me the gift of being the perfect mom, and you told me no matter what you will always love me.

You were so hyped about my graduation. If I would have known that Sunday was the last day for me to Hug you & kiss you, I would have held you a little longer and tighter. If I would have known Monday would have been the last time you said mom I love you, I would have said it a trillion times more. BB mommy is not ok, & I need you so bad. I need a reset button now more than ever. I remember the day you came into this world it was a celebration in my delivery room and now look, a celebration again when you left. 18 years is not a long time, you were supposed to bury me not us burying you. I LOVE YOU SONSON. MOMMY WILL ALWAYS LOVE YOU.

BRANDON

GONE TOO SOON

Brandon Quadir BaCote-Byer, 18, passed away, October 17, 2022. Born in Philadelphia on July 16, 2004, he was the biggest baby boy of Shantae Ann Sheila Byer and Brandon Phelps BaCote.

Brandon was a senior at Pottsgrove High School. He enjoyed playing football and listening to all kinds of music. Brandon, who was known as BB by his loved ones, loved spending time with his family. BB's smile and charm would light up the room. His aura was unmatched by anybody. BB loved to play his game system, stay on his phone and kick it with his friends. BB loved looking out for his siblings (he enjoyed being a big brother).

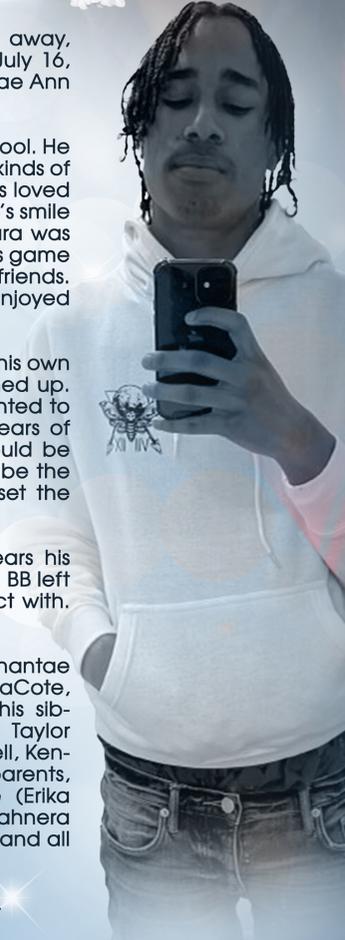

BB had an amazing eye for fashion. He had his own style. BB had multiple jobs and new jobs lined up. BB had goals and life achievements he wanted to accomplish. BB's loyalty was beyond his years of life. If he loved you, you knew that BB would be there for you. BB taught his parents how to be the greatest parents that they are today. He set the stone for his siblings.

Although our son was only here for 18 years his wisdom and honesty taught a lot of people. BB left an impact on everyone he came in contact with. Our Son will be missed.

He will be deeply missed by his parents: Shantae Ann Sheila Byer and Brandon Phelps BaCote, Step-Parents Kyle Harvey, Amina BaCote his siblings, Jaylen Sincere BaCote-Byer, Aubrey Taylor Byer, Autumn Marie BaCote; Ajaelrh Trammell, Kennedi Peterson, Sayuri Peterson; grandparents, Dawn Marie Robinson, Ronald E. Bacote (Erika BaCote), Deborah Marie Byer; Girlfriend, Jahnera Ferbres and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and all who had the opportunity to know him.

Lovingly Submitted,

THE FAMILY
