~ Life & Legacy ~

Willie Clarence “Bubba” Davis was born in Morgan County, Georgia on October 20, 1953, to the late Jeff and Fannie Davis.

He graduated from Newton County High School in 1971. Upon completing high school, Willie also earned a certificate in welding. He went on to master his craft and became well known throughout the community as a highly skilled welder. Willie worked in this trade for over 50 years, primarily in Georgia, but also traveled to other states for work. He truly enjoyed what he did.

In addition to welding, Willie loved spending time outdoors. He enjoyed fishing, hunting, and he has a special love for dogs.

Willie was preceded in death by his father, Jeff Davis; his mother Fannie Pearl Davis; and one brother, Bishop Jeff “J.B.” Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memory two sons; Willie Cornelious Davis and Jermaine Edmond Davis; one daughter, Shameka Franks; six grandchildren; eight great grandchildren. He also is survived by three sisters; Rosie (Dr. Richard H. Pointer), Bessie Freeman and Charlotte (Phil Wise); a special nephew, Jeffrie Freeman; a god son, Kentoyous Smith and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

A Gentle Rest

Though your voice is silent,
Your love remains near.
In every cherished memory,
We still feel you here.

Your journey now is peaceful,
Your burdens laid to rest.
Forever in our hearts you stay—
Loved, remembered, and blessed.
