

And on the 8th day, God looked down on his planned paradise and said, I need a caretaker.
So God made a Farmer.

God said, I need somebody willing to get up before dawn, milk the cows, work all day in the field, milk
the cows again, eat supper then go to town and stay past midnight at a meeting of the school board.
So God made a Farmer.

God had to have somebody willing to ride the ruts
at double-speed to get the hay in ahead of the rain clouds and yet stop in mid-field and race to help
when he sees the first smoke from a neighbor's place.
So God made a farmer.

It had to be somebody who'd plow deep and straight and not cut corners; somebody to seed and weed, feed and breed, rake and disk, plow and plant, tie the fleece and strain the milk and replenish the self-feeder and finish a hard week's work with a five-mile drive to church.
So God made a Farmer.

Somebody who would bale a family together with the soft, strong bonds of sharing; who would laugh and then sigh and then reply with smiling eyes when his son says
he wants to spend his life doing what Dad does.
So God made a Farmer.

Leonard William Cap was born April 29, 1943 in Yankton to William and Ludmilla (Walloch) Cap. Leonard attended country school through the eighth grade and started farming with his dad until his dad's passing. He retired from farming in 2017 to take care of his wife, Lucy after she suffered a stroke.

Leonard met and married Lucy Haberer in Yankton on April 17, 1964. They were blessed with 2 children, Dwayne and Becky.

Leonard served in the National Guard from 1961 to 1967. Leonard enjoyed farming and working on all kinds of different things; whether it was mechanics or figuring out how to build just about anything. He was always ready to help out the neighbors. His favorite pastime was visiting. Leonard was an American Legion member for 35 years.

Leonard, age 82, passed away Sunday, May 18, 2025 at his home, doing what he loved doing—something outside.

Leonard is survived by his son and wife, Dwayne and Julie Cap of Yankton and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lucy; daughter, Becky; his parents, William and Ludmilla (Walloch) Cap; along with his father and mother-in-law, Laurence and Marcella Haberer.
