Obituary

NINA MAE MCCLAMY-MCKENZIE departed this life on Saturday March 18, 2023 at Harbor Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was born February 11, 1935, daughter of the late Elizabeth Kirby and Harold Thomas. Nina was adopted by Cora A. Pinkett and lived and was educated in Baltimore City.

She was joined in marriage to the late Bernard McClamy by Rev. Raymond Smith on April 20, 1953. From this union six children were born, Bernard McClamy Jr., Charles McClamy, Alfred McClamy, Darlene McClamy, Cora McClamy and Tony McClamy.

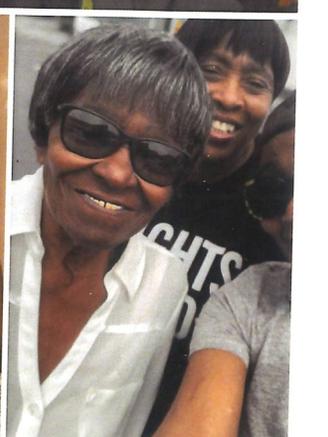

Nina was employed and worked numerous jobs. She spent 16 years prior to her retirement at Carr Lowery Glass Company. She looked forward to retirement and vowed to never work again, and she didn't! She spent her golden years with her great-grandchildren and her beloved dog Jewels.

On March 15, 2013, she was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Iry McKenzie.

Nina had a green thumb, and she could grow anything. She loved being in her garden and tending to her flowers and numerous other plants. She loved to cook and bake. Was a proud and dedicated fan of the Baltimore Ravens.

She loved her family and friends; and sadly God picked another flower, a beautiful yellow rose, for His heavenly garden. To know her was to love her. She meant something to each person she encountered.

She leaves to cherish her memory: six children, Bernard McClamy Jr. (Robin McClamy) New Hampshire, Charles McClamy (Lucille Henderson), Alfred McClamy (Debbie McClamy), Darlene McClamy Cora McClamy Sawyer (Quintin Sawyer), Tony McClamy (Tyra Patterson); a bonus son, Joseph Brown; sister-in-law, Vanessa Thomas (St. Michael's); nieces, Tina Way, Lisa Cone; nephews, David Way, Charles Way, with special recognition to Geneva Johnson (St. Michael's); granddaughters, Sharion, Mia, Shawntay, Niesha, Nina, Keisha (McClamy), Tasha Hicks, Tonette Harris and Melannie Skinner; grandsons, Charles, Ricky, Issac, Tony Jr., Antwan; and a host of great-grandchildren. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband Iry McKenzie, brothers Charles Kirby, Harold Thomas, Samuels Thomas, Albert Thomas, Hayes Pinkett and grandson Bernard McClamy III.

*Our Grandma did not lay down in eternal sleep,
For the Lord took her somewhere where she'll never weep.
Somewhere she will never feel pain or trouble,
Thinking now her life was not lived in vain.
For she closed her eyes, her heart filled with peace and love,
As her spirit flew away on the wings of a dove.*

LOVE ALWAYS, THE GRANDCHILDREN

NANA,

*My days won't feel the same without seeing you everyday to brighten my morning.
I'll love you forever.*

- LADON

*Nana until we meet again I will be singing our song...
"I saw two birdies in a tree, singing merrily.
They sing for you and they sing for me
Spring is here can't you see."
I love you, rest easy my love.
- UMACA*

*You fed me well!
You made me strong,
You taught me to know right from wrong.
You made me feel I always belonged,
You showed me the value of a song.
You used the words you knew would heal,
You convinced me it was no big deal.
You saw broken hearts and you liked to mend,
Never in your nature to offend.
You always send birthdays cards with love and intent,
You knew the value of family and friends.
You have gone to your heavenly home, now here I have to stay,
So now I pray that we will meet again another day.
You always had a special touch,
That caused me to love you oh so very much.
Please watch over me from above,
In that moment I will feel your love.
That one soft touch that I will know that it is you,
That infinite love between me and you.*

*LOVE ALWAYS,
YOUR GRANDDAUGHTER SHAWNTAY*
