Obituary

Dalkeith Cobert Wiltshire, 96, of Boston, Massachusetts, passed away on October 24th, 2022. Mr. Wiltshire was born on August 31st, 1926 on the island of Barbados. Mr. Wiltshire was born to Alphonso Maynard and Agnes Wiltshire. He was a devout catholic and family man. In Barbados he was a ships carpenter by trade. Upon arriving to the United States, he worked at both the Union Oyster House and the Jewish Memorial Hospital. Mr. Wiltshire later retired from Boston University. Mr. Wiltshire is survived by his wife of almost 60 years Teresa Wiltshire; his two children Sandra and Vilmore Wiltshire; his three grandchildren Makeisha, Tiara, Kai-Reyce; family, friends, and neighbors.

Although physical ailments robbed him of his mobility, he never complained nor quit. He enjoyed life by gardening, painting, sweeping, cooking, and carpentry all around the house. Mr. Wiltshire's memory will always be cherished as being kind, soft spoken, firm, fair, humble, simple, and respectful. He will be missed dearly by all who knew him. May Mr. Wiltshire rest in eternal peace.
