

Until We Meet Again

WE THINK ABOUT YOU ALWAYS,
WE TALK ABOUT YOU STILL,
YOU HAVE NEVER BEEN FORGOTTEN,
AND YOU NEVER WILL.
WE HOLD YOU CLOSE WITHIN OUR HEARTS
AND THERE YOU WILL REMAIN,
TO WALK AND GUIDE US THROUGH OUR LIVES,
UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

"Our Family Caring for Your Family"

In loving memory of

CARLOS RYAN
VINCENT

Carlos Ryan Vincent was born on September 9, 1991, in Oklahoma City to Melissa Vincent and Ray Casias.

Carlos was a devoted husband, father, son, and friend whose love for his family ran deep. He was truly a family man in every sense of the word. Nothing brought him more joy than spending time with his wife and children. His children were the apple of his eye, and he wore the title of “Dad” with pride and honor. His love, guidance, and steady presence will forever remain in their hearts.

Carlos was a hardworking man who took pride in what he did. He worked as a brush cutter and had a strong appreciation for tractors, something that always brought out his passion and excitement. He believed in honest work and providing for the people he loved.

In his downtime, Carlos found peace in music. He loved both rap and country, and whether it was a powerful rap verse or a heartfelt country song, music was one of the ways he expressed himself and connected to the world around him.

Carlos will be remembered for his deep love for his family, his hardworking spirit, and the quiet strength he carried. Though his time here was far too short, the love he gave so freely will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. Carlos passed from this life on February 9, 2026. He was preceded in death by his father, Ray Casias.

Carlos’s memory will live on in his loving wife, Nicole Avila; his mom, Melissa Vincent; his dad, Fritz Etheridge; his daughter, Teresa Vincent; his sons, Chebonee Rubedeaux and Carlos Basaldua Vincent, Jr.; his sisters, Carmen Vincent, Christia Vincent, Monica Gonzales, Corinna Casias, and Candyce Tamez; his brothers, Nato Gonzales, Silver Gonzales, and Jacob Ethridge; and his two cherished grandchildren, Zakova Nolan and Zahlia Nolan. He also leaves behind numerous nieces, nephews, extended family members, and friends who will forever hold him in their hearts.

Though his time here was far too short, the love Carlos gave so freely and the memories he created will live on through the many lives he touched. He will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered always.
