

HEIDELBERG CATECHISM

What is your only comfort in life and in death?

That I, with body and soul, both in life and in death, am not my own, but belong to my faithful Savior Jesus Christ, who with His precious blood has fully satisfied for all my sins, and redeemed me from all the power of the devil; and so preserves me that without the will of my Father in heaven not a hair can fall from my head; indeed, that all things must work together for my salvation. Wherefore, by His Holy Spirit, he also assures me of eternal life, and makes me heartily willing and ready from now on to live unto Him.

In Loving Memory Of

Vivian J. Greiman

June 25, 1926 – February 13, 2025

Vivian J. Greiman, 98, of Garner, passed away Thursday, February 13, 2025, at Concord Care Center in Garner.

Vivian June Greiman was born on June 25, 1926, in Dows, Iowa, the daughter of Herman and Sophia (Peterson) Kreitlow. At just 3½ years old, she faced the loss of her mother, leaving her father with ten children to raise alone. As the youngest of the Kreitlow siblings, Vivian was lovingly adopted by her aunt Clara and uncle Harvey Harberts. Vivian's education took place at country schools in the Klemme area, culminating in her graduation from Klemme High School in 1943. After completing her education, she dedicated herself to helping her family on the farm. In 1944, at the Surf Ballroom in Clear Lake, she met the love of her life, Wayne Greiman. Their union on October 31, 1946, at the Peace Reformed parsonage south of Garner marked the beginning of a beautiful partnership for 60 years. For 25 years, Vivian and Wayne made their home on the family farm south of Garner, later moving to a farm near Goodell in 1971. Throughout her children's formative years, she remained actively engaged in their lives, notably through her support of 4-H projects, and she derived great joy from working outdoors on the farm and being Wayne's constant right hand. Her family will lovingly remember and always miss her deep love for sweets, her spunky sense of humor and her unmatched ability to tell a story.

She was an active member of Peace Reformed Church, where she taught Sunday school and served for many years as an officer of the Ladies Missionary Society. She also belonged to the O.D.O. Club in Klemme.

Vivian is survived by her children, Connie (Mark) Hill of Cedar Falls, Fred (Gena) Greiman of Garner, and Denise (Jeff) Eilertson of Garner; her son-in-law, Ken Busick of Mason City; grandchildren, Megan Hill, Dale Busick, Brook Peterson, Gail (Jeremy) Gouge, Jamie (Nick) Christensen, Luke Greiman, Nick Eilertson, and Carrie Eilertson; 17 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; along with many nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Wayne, who passed away in 2007; her daughter, Carole Busick; son, Dennis Greiman; an infant son, Merlin; grandson, Chad Hill; granddaughter, Andrea Young; and her siblings.

In Loving Memory Of

Vivian J. Greiman

June 25, 1926 – February 13, 2025

FUNERAL SERVICE

Peace Reformed Church
Garner, Iowa

10:30 a.m., Wednesday, February 19, 2025

OFFICIATING

Rev. Matthew Dawn

MUSIC

Brenda Anderson, Pianist

Congregational Hymns

"No Night There"

"Rock of Ages"

"Abide With Me"

"Nearer My God to Thee"

USHERS

Bill Katter

Graydon Lau

HONORARY BEARERS

Megan Hill

Carrie Eilertson

Brook Peterson

Gail Gouge

Jamie Christensen

CASKET BEARERS

Nick Eilertson

Dale Busick

Luke Greiman

Cooper Christensen

Brock Gouge

Street Stokes

Kaden Young

BURIAL

Peace Reformed Cemetery – Garner, Iowa

All are invited to a luncheon in the church Fellowship Hall immediately following the committal service at the cemetery.

Cafaldo
FUNERAL HOMES