Funeral Tribute in Honor of Guy Marie Baptiste

Ladies and Gentlemen, Dear Family Members and Friends,

It is with great sadness that I stand before you today to pay tribute to Guy Marie Baptiste, who passed away on Sunday, August 9, 2026.

Guy Marie Baptiste was born on October 3, 1967. He completed his primary education at the École Nationale de Dame-Marie, followed by his secondary education at Collège Nelson Mandela. He later continued his studies at the Faculty of Ethnology, where he earned a master's degree in anthropology.

In 2010–2011, Guy had the opportunity to visit the United States. After spending several months with his family, he returned to Haiti. A few years later, he decided to settle permanently in the United States. He lived for several years in Georgia with his aunt before moving to North Carolina, where he remained until the end of his life.

Last year, Guy was involved in a serious car accident while on his way to work. He was not feeling well and lost consciousness while driving. Emergency services were called, and he was transported to the hospital. After a week, he returned home to continue his treatment and recovery.

Following the accident, his health no longer allowed him to work. Despite the difficulties he faced, he continued to move forward with courage until the day he departed this life.

Today, we are gathered not only to mourn his passing, but also to honor his life, his journey, his intelligence, his efforts, and the many memories he leaves behind.

Death also reminds us of a truth that we all share: our time on this earth is temporary. As Marcus Aurelius wrote, each of us plays our role for the time we are given, and then comes the moment when we must leave the stage. This thought reminds us to appreciate the time we have with those we love and to cherish their memories when they are no longer with us.

Guy left a lasting impression on the lives of those who knew him. His journey, from Dame-Marie, Haiti, to the United States, reflects the life of a man who devoted much of his time to learning, working, and building a future for himself.

His passing leaves a great emptiness in the hearts of his family, loved ones, friends, and all those who had the privilege of knowing him.

During this difficult time, we extend our heartfelt condolences to his entire family. May God grant them the strength, courage, comfort, and peace they need as they endure this painful loss.

Guy, your journey among us has ended, but your memory will remain alive in our hearts.

May your soul rest in peace.

May the Lord receive you into His light and grant your family peace and comfort.

Farewell, Guy. Rest in peace.
Rémy Noël
