

THIS ISN'T GOODBYE...

My body lies here, but my soul is gone.
I am with The Master in my gorgeous Heavenly home.
Across the river, not far from the lake...
A journey, someday, we all must make.
There's family and friends gone many years before.
I'm singing in the choir and learning all the ancient lore.
This isn't a "goodbye".
And, beloved, it's okay if you must cry.
Grieve, as you please, but only for a little while.
Remember me, my wisdom, my love,
and my beautiful smile.

OBITUARY

“But those who wait on the Lord will find strength. They will fly high on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not faint.”
-Isaiah 40:31

Bernice Dunn was born on February 16, 1947 to the late Herman and Lovie Dunn at Duke Hospital in Durham, NC. She entered eternal rest on Monday, November 1, 2021 in the comfort of her home.

Bernice was educated in the Johnston County Schools and graduated in 1965 from William Mason Cooper High School. She was employed with Wake Medical Center and Dorothea Dix Hospitals in Raleigh, NC.

Bernice was reared in a Christian home and joined Lee’s Crossroad Baptist Church at an early age, where she served faithfully and loved singing in the choir.

In addition to her parents, Bernice was preceded in death by her sister Bernona Dunn, her brother Marvin Hinton and her sister in-law Elizabeth Hinton.

Bernice leaves to cherish her memories: her devoted daughter Bernita Dunn (Daryl) of Selma, NC; one grandson William Dunn Chappell (Mercedes) and one great granddaughter Brielle Chappell both of NC; one sister Lillie Vinson (Leroy), Archer Lodge, NC; two nieces Loretta Parks of Clayton, NC (Dominic), Clayton, NC and Marva Hinton Gibson (Derrick) of Homestead, FL; three great nephews Landyn Parks, Clayton, NC and Garvey Gibson of Homestead, FL and Dez of Goldsboro, NC; two great niece Cairo Gibson, Homestead, FL and Miya of Goldsboro, NC; three God children Kristin Davis, Raleigh, NC and Breon Davis, Selma, NC and Quintin McMillan of Greensboro, NC; a special cousin, Billy Dunn of Raleigh, NC; and a host of cousins, other relatives and friends.
