Obituary

On Wednesday, May 31, 2023 Veronica Grandy received a blessing to reside in a special place within the many mansions of the Lord. She has been raised in glory and power. She will lay in peace and walk in complete happiness.

Veronica (Vern) Grandy, the daughter of the late Herbert McCauley Jr. and Geraldine Foster was born on Wednesday, January 18, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland. On Wednesday, May 31, 2023 Veronica Grandy received a blessing to reside in a special place within the many mansions of the Lord. She has been raised in glory and power and she will lay in peace and walk in complete happiness.

Veronica (Vern) received her education from Southern High School. After she graduated, she served in the United States Navy from October 1, 1981 to her honorable discharged date of October 8, 1995. She was employed as a E-4 Telecommunicator Operator stationed in Annapolis, Maryland.

Veronica (Vern) enjoyed life and most importantly she enjoyed being around her family. She made it her duty to visit friends and family in any weather precast no matter if it would be rain or snow. Veronica (Vern) but as we all know Big G was funny and was known to be the "life of the party" at all the family functions. She would do a dance that only she knew how to do with any kind of music.

Veronica (Vern) lived everyday as her last day here on Earth by greeting and making new friends and adoptive family each day that God gave her life. God gave Veronica (Vern) the gift to share her experiences she had in the United States Navy, her love for her children, grandchildren, food and the people who she met on her journey around Baltimore City. Veronica (Vern) was a happy and a free-spirited person who always had a warm smile and reassuring voice. When she felt that a person was not at their best she would say "no matter what you are going through, it is going to be alright and stop worrying."

Veronica (Vern) will be missed dearly, but we will always remember her as a gift from God by showing us how precious life is and how God gives us the will to get up each day whether you were sick or healthy.

Veronica was preceded in death by her parents Herbert McCauley Jr and Geraldine Foster, her honorary mother/grandmother Nancy Mae McCauley, and her siblings, Gwendolyn Ann Cook and Micheal Foster.

Veronica (Vern) leaves to cherish her memory her devoted husband, Tony Grandy; two beautiful daughters, Raushaanah and Rausheenah Grandy; six wonderful grandchildren, Chaz, Kayla, Kamaury, Autumn, Mason and Brooke; siblings, Michele Foster-Liggins, Regina Foster, and Reginald Foster; six devoted aunts, Rovina Anderson, Mary Strane, Elaine McCauley, Katherine McCauley, Luvenia McCauley, Marie Wilson; two uncles, Robert Wilson, Whailey Cook, and a host of nieces, nephews, and other family and friends who all loved her deeply.

Veronica (Vern or Big G) was and always will be one of a kind because she is now walking freely in Heaven through those pearly gates with God. Rest in eternal peace Vern. Your family and friends will always miss and love you.

I Miss You Mom

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.
I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.
I think of you in silence, I often speak your name.
All I have are memories, and your picture in a frame.
Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.
God has you in his keeping, I have you in my heart.
Love, Shaanah

To My Grandma

I really feel quite special that God chosen you to be a person in my life who knows me through and through. The time that we spend talking, I've always felt you heard... You've been so good at listening to each and every word. And even things I didn't share, You somehow heard them too.
I think this is a special gift that God has given you. So I just want to Thank You for being there for me, and showing me acceptance and love so totally.
Love, Kamaury, Autumn, and Brooke

You Never Said Goodbye

You never said I'm leaving, You never said goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it, and only God knew why.
A million times I needed you, a million times I cried.
If Love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly, in death I love you still. In my heart
You hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to lose you, But you didn't go alone. For part of me went with you, the day God took you home.
Love, Your Husband Tony

Full Of Life

You weren't like other grandmothers who let their age impact their way of life. You continued doing the things you loved, until the very end. Always active, always vibrant and always ready to bring a smile to my face. Grandma, your full life touched so many. You will Never be forgotten.
Love, Chaz and Kayla

Grandma,

I knew my Grandma for as long as I been alive.
She is gone now but she will not be forgotten.
My Grandmother was a very strong lady,
and even through sickness she still fought till the end.
I love you and wish you could've stayed longer but God said it was your time.
I hope you feel better up there.
Love, Mason
