Nadine Ada Skinner Dudley, 83, of Orem, Utah, passed away June 27, 2025. She was born on August 16, 1941, in Nevada City, California, to Wendell Austin and Ada Anna Peterson Skinner.

Nadine graduated from Orem High School, and she was a secretary for many years at various companies.

She married Gene Dudley on April 6, 1962, in Provo, then they later divorced. She enjoyed bowling, and she was on several leagues in Orem. Nadine also loved to travel and even got to do a tour of Europe with her cousin and go to Hawaii with her Mother and Aunt.

She is survived by her sister Janice Evans, several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, stepfather Warren Anderson, 2 children, Shanna Dudley, Troy Dudley, and 2 brothers, Nolan and Bradley Skinner.
