

LOVE is patient, love is kind...
it does not envy, it does not boast
it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices in TRUTH.
It always protects, always trusts,
always HOPES, always preserves.
LOVE NEVER FAILS

- 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8

What a comfort...
For us to know that our burden of grief
was shared by our family & friends.

In Loving Memory of Martha Marie Hyde Dixon
August 24, 1935 - October 26, 2024

Don't think of her as gone away -
her JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets -
this earth is only one.

Just think of her as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how she must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.

In the Hearts of those she touched
And think of her as living
For nothing loved is ever lost -
And she was loved so much.

Honor Loving Memory

It is with great sadness that the family of Martha Marie Dixon (Marie/Ree/Nana) announce her peaceful passing on Saturday, October 26, 2024, at the age of 89.

Marie was a wife to Doug Dixon and mother of four children, and grandmother of nine grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She and Doug were married in their hometown of Elberton, Georgia in 1955 and then embarked on a life of travel while they served in the Air Force for 22 years. After military retirement, the family moved back to Georgia in 1974 and settled in Duluth. Marie never missed an event that her children or grandchildren participated in. Nana was a pianist and a huge fan of music (the Eagles), the Braves, and of course the Georgia Dawgs. Family members say her biggest passion in life, besides raising her four children, was serving as Nana to her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. In addition to family, Marie loved to have a good time with many life-long friends. The quality of time and unconditional love that she and Doug invested with her family over many years has now become by example her legacy.

Marie will be lovingly remembered by her children (in birth order): Mike (Andrea), Jenny (Bill), Dave (Kathleen), and Phil (Ollie); her daughter-in-law, Carol McLaughlin; sister-in-law, Gloria Ray (Steve); grandchildren: Brian (Andrea) Hill, Andrew Dixon, Jennifer Hill, Keith Dixon, Hayden Dixon, Alex Dixon, Sara Dixon, Rachel Dixon, and Ryan Dixon; great-grandchildren: Tyler Hill and Emma Kate Hill; nieces and nephews: Terri Ray, Shane Ray, Jeff Hyde, Patti McLanahan, Bonnie Hutto, Jane Ann Hofman, Karen Baugh, Greg Baugh, Christina Trexler, Janice Madden, and Belinda Thomas; and numerous other family members and friends. Marie was predeceased by her husband, Doug Dixon (marriage of 64 years); her parents, Minnie Lou Jones Hyde and James Jefferson Hyde; and her siblings: William (Boodie), Earl, George (Mac), and Laura (Lala).
