

A Mother's Blessing and Goodbye

When My Time on Earth is Finished
And my steps No Longer Stay,
Do Not look for me in sorrow
I have only gone away

Look for me within the morning,
In the fresh and gentle breeze,
In the laughter of summer
In the rustling of the tree's

I have left you deep affection
More than silver or than gold
It will warm you through the shadows
Like a cold against the cold

Close your eyes and you will find me
In the quiet of your heart
Love like ours is never broken
We can never truly part

Live with courage, be each-others anchor,
true and kind
Know that I am watching over
All the precious souls I leave behind.

Mary Jennings, Officiating

Obituary

Mary C. Jacobs was born on March 10, 1955, to the late John Jennings and Anna-Mae Scruggs in Covington, Kentucky. She was called home to be with the Lord on July 7, 2026, at her home in Covington, Kentucky.

Mary accepted Christ and was baptized at an early age at Ninth Street Baptist Church in Covington, Kentucky. She attended Lincoln Grant School and, later in life, began working at the Marriott RiverCenter in Covington, Kentucky, where she remained until her retirement.

Our beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, Mary, was a loving, firm, genuine, honest, sincere, and one-of-a-kind woman. She enjoyed spending time with her family, cooking for her loved ones, listening to all genres of music, and tending to her garden. Mary truly had a green thumb and found joy in caring for the things she planted.

Mary was best known for being a ray of sunshine to everyone around her. She showed her love by feeding those she cared about with her good cooking, standing firm in what she believed, protecting her family, and always making sure her loved ones were alright.

“We Gone Be Alright.”

Mary was preceded in death by her longtime companion, William Commodore; her parents, John Jennings and Anna-Mae Scruggs; her grandchildren, Raymund Jennings and Dontonio Jennings-Jones; her brothers, Henry “Mac” Jennings, Robert “Hotdog” Brown, and Luther Scruggs; and her nephew, David Jennings.

Mary will be lovingly remembered by her devoted husband, Charles Jacobs; her ten children, Antonio Jennings, David Jennings, Doretha Sydnor (Chris), Iris McDaniel (Alvin), William Jennings, Ralph Jennings, Taracotta Jennings, Raven Jacobs, Ja’erica Bradford, and Joshua Bradford; her siblings, John Jennings (Thelma), David Jennings (Jennifer), Mamie Brown, Mildred Brown, Cheryl Walton, JoAnn Jennings, and Julia Johnson (Milton); along with a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends who will forever cherish her memory.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
