

If I Could Speak to You Once More A MESSAGE OF LOVE FROM Mother Yvonne

To My Beloved Family,

If I could speak to you once more, I would tell you, don't let your hearts be troubled for me. The God I prayed to, the God I trusted, and the God who kept me for 91 years has carried me safely Home.

Life taught me many things, but above all, I learned that God is faithful. When you don't know what to do—pray. When your heart is hurting—pray. When the way becomes difficult—pray. And when God has been good to you, never forget to thank Him.

If my life has taught you anything, let it be this: hold on to God. Love one another. Forgive one another. Check on each other. Keep the family together, and don't allow the troubles of this world to separate what God joined together through love.

My children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and all my family—you were among God's greatest gifts to me. I carried your names in my heart and your lives before God in prayer. Some prayers you heard me pray; others were whispered when nobody was listening but the Lord.

Now that my earthly journey is complete, don't let the prayers stop because I am gone.

Somebody must keep praying.
Somebody must keep believing.
Somebody must teach the next generation about Jesus.
Somebody must carry the faith forward.

When you miss me, remember my love. Remember my prayers. Remember my faith. And when life becomes heavy, hear me saying:

"Keep trusting God. He will take care of you."

Don't spend too long crying for me. The Savior I spent my life talking to has welcomed me into His presence. My prayers have become praise, and my faith has become sight.

Stay together. Keep praying. Keep believing. Keep God first.

And live so that when your journey is finished, we will meet again where there is no more sorrow, no more separation, and no more goodbyes.

I lived for the Lord.
I trusted the Lord.
The Lord kept me.
And the Lord will keep you, too.

With everlasting love,
Mother Yvonne

THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF Mother Yvonne Wilson
MAY 13, 1935 – AUGUST 12, 2026

“To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.”
2 Corinthians 5:8

There are some lives whose greatest testimony is not found in titles or earthly recognition, but in a lifetime of simply walking with God. Such was the beautiful life of Mother Yvonne Wilson—a praying woman, a faithful woman, and a woman whose 91-year journey became a living testimony of the keeping power of God.

Yvonne was born on May 13, 1935, in Madison, Florida, to Willie Brown and Sarah Johnson Brown. From an early age, she gave her life to Christ, beginning a relationship with the Lord that would remain the foundation of her life until her final breath.

Her Christianity was never merely something she professed—it was something she lived.

Yvonne loved Jesus Christ without compromise. Her faith could be seen in the way she loved, served, endured, and cared for others. She carried the Spirit of the Lord into her home and relationships, allowing the fruit of the Spirit to be reflected through her daily life.

Above all, Mother Yvonne was a praying woman.

One of the greatest gifts she gave her family was teaching them how to pray—not merely through words, but through example. They watched her seek God, believe God, and trust God through every season. When circumstances were uncertain, she prayed. When life became difficult, she trusted. And when she could not understand God’s plan, she remained faithful.

Over nine decades, Yvonne experienced the joys, changes, challenges, and sorrows that accompany a long life. Yet through it all, she knew something about the keeping power of God. She did not allow life’s circumstances to rob her of her faith or gratitude. Her testimony remained simple and steadfast:

The Lord kept me.

Her greatest earthly treasures were found in her family. As a mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sister, aunt, and loved one, she poured into generations the faith and values that sustained her own life. Her legacy lives in every person who learned something about trusting God by watching her.

On Wednesday, August 12, 2026, after 91 years of living, loving, praying, believing, and trusting, Mother Yvonne completed her earthly assignment.

The hands that had been folded in prayer could finally rest. The woman who spent a lifetime talking to Jesus was called into His presence.

She was preceded in death by her beloved daughter, Cynthia Wilcox; her parents, Willie Brown and Sarah Johnson Brown; six sisters; three brothers; and her goddaughter, Shonda Gallon.

She leaves to cherish her precious memory her daughter, Eldora (Jeffrey) Siplin; her sister, Rosemary McNair; four grandchildren, Daniel Choice, Jr., Kelvin Singletary, Desmond Butler, and Krystal Smith; a goddaughter, Tasha Michelle Oliver; four great-grandchildren, Karter Singletary, Harmony Butler, Kiylyn Singletary, and Serenity Butler; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, loved ones, and friends.

Today, we celebrate more than 91 years of life. We celebrate a woman who prayed, believed, endured, and remained faithful. The God she taught her family to trust is now the God who will sustain them in her absence.

Mother Yvonne’s earthly voice may be silent, but her testimony will continue preaching through the generations she leaves behind.

She taught us to pray.
She taught us to believe.
She taught us to remain faithful.
And she showed us how to live for Christ.

Her praying days have given way to praise.
Her faith has become sight.
Her labor has become reward.

She lived for the Lord. She was kept by the Lord. And now, she rests with the Lord.

Her Prayer Became Praise

She lived by faith,
she walked with God,
and taught us how to pray.

Now her prayers have turned to praise,
and she is safely Home.
