"Mama"

You always told us, "You only get one mama."
And you were right.

You want us to be independent. You wanted us to work hard. You wanted us to be good people. You wanted us to take the lessons you gave us and make something of ourselves.

And Mama, even though my heart hurts knowing you are no longer here, I find comfort in knowing that you got to see some of the results of everything you poured into me. The values you taught me. The lessons you gave me. The sacrifices you made for me.
The love you gave me. The work ethic you instilled in me. You got to see that your hard work wasn't in vain.
And for that, I will always be grateful. Because you only get one mama.

One person who can never truly be replaced. One person whose voice stays with you, even after the calls stop. One person whose lessons stay with you even after the teaching is done. One person whose love stays with you long after they are gone. You only get one mama.

And mine was Charell Raynita Davis Woods.

My mama.
My teacher.
My supporter.
My protector.
My biggest cheerleader.

My mama,

I wish I could hear your voice one more time. I wish I could hear you tell me one more time. I wish I could answer one more birthday call. I wish I could hear you tell me one more time the story of the day
I was born.

I wish I could lay across that bed with you one more Christmas movie.

But until we meet again, I will carry your voice with me.

I will carry your lessons with me. I will carry your love with me. And I will carry everything you worked so hard to put into me.

You always said, "You only get one mama," and Mama,
I am so thankful that I got you.

You only get one mama. And I will love mine forever.

The Obituary

Charell R. Davis Woods was born on November 13, 1968, to the union of Raymond I. Davis and Diane Davis.

Charell accepted Christ at an early age at Beulah Missionary Baptist Church, where she remained a longtime member until her health began to fail.

Charell was employed at ADVICS for nearly 30 years. She was a loving, kind, and generous person who never met a stranger. Like her mother, Charell had a giving spirit. She carried on the shopping tradition her mother began with HSN and QVC. They never bought just one of anything, so someone was always going to receive a gift or two.

Charell also worked diligently on her maternal family's reunions, continuing the tradition established by her mother. She also helped in the church kitchen while working third shift. Charell was a member of the BBC Mass Choir.

When her granddaughter, Ny'Aire, was born, Charell's home became filled with all things "Bluey." Whatever she did for you or shared with you, she did it with a smile.

Her mother, Diane Davis; grandparents Anderson Allmon, Jr., and Irene Williams Allmon; and father-in-law Sam Smith all preceded her in her homegoing.

She leaves to cherish and celebrate her memory her loving husband, Leonard D. Woods; her father, Raymond I. Davis; her sons, D'Andre Jemal Gaymon and Robert J. Davis; her granddaughter, Ny'Aire "LeLe" Davis; her brothers, Andre (Nissa)
Davis and Jemal Davis of Atlanta, Georgia; her sister, Cheree (Ronnie) Taylor; her aunts, Gwendolyn (Richard) Jones and Gertrude (John) Love; her mother-in-law, Margaret Woods; her brothers-in-law, Steve Woods, Stephen Smith, and Sam Smith Jr.;
her sisters-in-law, Shannon Woods, Sharon Smith, and Barbara Jo Smith; A bonus daughter, Brittany Jones, and a host of other relatives and friends.
