

Expressions of Love

The family of the late Willie Stinson Jr. acknowledges with sincere appreciation the many acts of kindness, love, and support shown during our time of bereavement. Every prayer, call, visit, and expression of sympathy has brought us comfort and strength. We, the family, are deeply grateful for your presence, your love, and your continued prayers. May God bless each of you for the kindness you have shown to our family.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little—but not too long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
Miss me—but let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.
Miss me—but let me go.
