

To Those I love and Those Who Love Me

Release me. Let me go
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears, Be happy, we had so many years.

I gave you my love and you can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled alone.

So grieve a while for me if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless those memories in your heart.

I won't be far away for life goes on
So if you need me , call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near with all my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and "Welcome You Home".

Obituary

Elizabeth Woodard Chavers, a longtime resident of Cincinnati, Ohio, died on Monday, November 10, 2020. Born on October 14, 1925 in Crawford, Georgia, Elizabeth (Liz) was the only daughter born to Artie Lou Jackson and Julia Woodard.

During the Korean war era, Elizabeth moved to Cincinnati where she met and married her husband, Robert Chavers. Elizabeth was a life-long learner. She enjoyed history, poetry, reading and was astute with accounting and mathematics. Elizabeth professionally worked as an auditor for the Internal Revenue Service until she retired in the early nineties.

She enjoyed serving her church and visiting with friends and family. She was always there to lend support, a helping hand or share her wisdom. When her parents reached their elder years, Elizabeth moved both in and cared for them. Her love and care allowed them to live long fruitful lives. Her mom lived passed 100.

Elizabeth had a vibrant smile and personality. She loved and lived life fully. Although she did not have any of her own, Elizabeth loved children. She often cared for and claimed them as her own.

Elizabeth leaves to mourn Carolyn West Parks; Crystal (Eric) Hill and son Alan; Richard (Jean) West and their children Gina Fumi (Joe), and son Keenan; Angel Garr and Lucien Garr; Erick W. Rozier (Carlene) and their Sarena and Erick Kobie; Keith Rozier (Lorraine) and his children Brittny and Christopher; and Antoinette Leatherberry and her daughters Kyra and Aisha.
