

God's Garden

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine".
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

Concluding Prayer- Curtis Forney

Hymn #111

1. Life, like a mist, appears for just a day, Then disappears tomorrow.
All that we are can quickly fade away, Replaced with tears and sorrow.
If a man should die, can he live again? Hear the promise God has made:

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.

2. Friends of our God, though they may pass away,
Will never be forsaken. All those asleep who in God's mem'ry stay,
From death he will awaken. Then we'll come to see all that life can be:
Paradise eternally.

(CHORUS)

He will call; The dead will answer. They will live at his command.
For he will have a longing For the work of his own hand.
So have faith, and do not wonder, For our God can make us stand.
And we will live forever, As the work of his own hand.
