

Jake Gawryluk

was born on January 9, 1991, in Dickinson, the son of Paul Gawryluk and Tracy (Snow) Weiss. He grew up in Dickinson and attended Dickinson High School, where he made many lifelong friends.

On his journey through life, Jake married Elizabeth Basaraba-Thompson, and together they welcomed their son, Maxem Xavier, who was Jake's greatest pride and joy.

Over the years, Jake worked various jobs, including in the oil field, before following his entrepreneurial spirit to open Jake's Auto Detailing in 2019. Through his business, he became a familiar face in the community, known for his hard work and dedication to providing his clients with the cleanest cars in town.

Jake had a passion for adventure. He enjoyed skiing, skydiving, traveling, working out, and most of all, spending time with his son, Maxem.

Jake is survived by his son, Maxem of Dickinson; his father, Paul Gawryluk of Dickinson; brothers, Josh of Dickinson and Justin of Phoenix, AZ; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Tracy; and his paternal and maternal grandparents.
