

Goodbye to Romance

by Ozzy Osbourne

Yesterday has been and gone
Tomorrow will I find the sun
Or will it rain?

Everybody's having fun
Except me, I'm the lonely one
I live in shame

I say goodbye to romance, yeah
Goodbye to friends, I tell you
Goodbye to all the past
I guess that we'll meet,
we'll meet in the end

I've been the king, I've been the clown
Now broken wings can't hold me down
I'm free again

The jester with the broken crown
It won't be me this time around
To love in vain

I say goodbye to romance, yeah
Goodbye to friends, I tell you
Goodbye to all the past
I guess that we'll meet,
we'll meet in the end

And I feel the time is right Although I know that you just might say to me
"What you gonna do, what you gonna do?"

But I have to take this chance
Goodbye to friends and to romance
And to all of you, and to all of you Come on now

I say goodbye to romance, yeah
Goodbye to friends, I tell you
Goodbye to all the past
I guess that we'll meet,
we'll meet in the end

And the winter's looking fine
And I think the sun will shine again
And I feel I've cleaned my mind
All the past is left behind again

I say goodbye to romance, yeah
Goodbye to friends, I tell you
Goodbye to all the past
I guess that we'll meet,
we'll meet in the end

Goodbye to Romance

Ozzy Osbourne

Roger was born on February 22, 1965, in Wagner, South Dakota, to Alvin and Grace (Mudder) Stock.

On April 10, 1987, Roger married Tammy Halva in Yankton. They shared 38 years together. On September 4th of that same year, Roger and Tammy welcomed their one and only daughter, Stacey (Stock) Ginsbach, who he adored deeply.

Roger spent his life working hard and caring for his family. His first job was at the Chateau Restaurant. Over the years, he also worked for The Mint Lounge, Pine Lane Estates, Walnut Village, The Center, and Bro Burger. His last job was with Big Burrito Company, where he worked until he was diagnosed with cancer, which eventually disabled him from working.

Roger was a tough, dedicated man and an extremely hard worker. He had a passion for cooking and loved to make anything for his family—especially chocolate chip cookies and deviled eggs. His greatest joy in life was his daughter and grandchildren.

Roger loved music, especially Ozzy Osbourne and Randy Rhoads, and he was a loyal fan of the Miami Dolphins. He also had a special place in his heart for his Saint Bernards.

Roger passed away unexpectedly at the age of 60 on Friday, October 17, 2025, at Avera Sacred Heart Hospital in Yankton.

He is survived by his loving wife, Tammy Stock of Yankton; daughter, Stacey (Dave) Ginsbach of Yankton; four grandchildren: Rylan, Rayce, Riken, and Shilo, all of Yankton; two brothers, Russell Stock of Tyndall and Ronald Stock of Wagner; and one sister, Charlotte Kahnau of Tyndall.

Roger was deeply loved by his family and friends. He will be remembered for his sense of humor, his love for cooking, his strength, and the love he poured into his family—especially his daughter and grandchildren, of whom he was so proud.
