When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a
soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step on the road to HOME.
When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know, & bury your sorrows
In doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.

Mr. Jack Terrell Vickery, 74, of Myrtle Street, Elberton, passed away on Wednesday, November 13, 2024, at Avery Village in Winterville following a brief illness.

The only child of the late Jack Gipson Vickery and Mary Elizabeth Johnson Vickery, Jack was born on January 18, 1950 in Elberton, where he lived all of his life. He was a 1968 graduate of Elbert County High School and was a 1973 graduate of the University of Georgia where he obtained a bachelor's degree in business. Jack worked for thirteen years in the trucking industry at Spartan Express. He later enjoyed a long, successful career in granite sales where he forged many lifelong friendships. Jack was an avid UGA football fan who was always cheering on the dogs, whether from the stands or from his easy chair.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Renae Lovinggood Vickery; son, Russell Andrew Vickery and his wife Brittany of Buford; and two granddaughters who were the apple of his eye: Addison Claire Vickery and Mackenzie Alana Vickery.

Nicheside services, for family only, will be held on Sunday, November 17, at 2:00p.m. at Elmhurst Cemetery with the Rev. Tim Adams officiating.

A time of visitation celebrating Jack's life will be held on Sunday, November 17, from 3:00-5:00p.m at Berry Funeral Home. Jack was adamant that he did not want a formal service, and the family is honoring his wishes.

In lieu of flowers, in memory of Jack, please consider a donation to Samaritan's Purse Hurricane Helene Relief, P.O. Box 3000, Boone, NC 28607 or online at samaritanspurse.org.
