THE LEGACY OF

Janice Marie Daniels

Ms. Janice Marie Daniels was born on January 31, 1958, in Jacksonville, FL to Eva Pearl and Vartise Daniels. She attended and graduated from William M. Raines High School in the Duval County school system.

She was employed by Jacksonville Jaguars 27 years as a Sous Chef). She was an active member of Zion Hope Baptist Church. Janice was well known in her love of cooking and family gatherings and always was supportive to her family and friends. She loved to cook out and have fun with her friends and family. In 2023 she was able to get to know God and turn her life around, giving her life to Christ. Janice enjoyed her church family and was a faithful member of the Senior Women Ministry until God called her home.

Janice was proceeded in death by her parents: Eva Pearl and Vartise Daniels; son: Victor Daniels Sr.; her siblings: Ceartice, Cora Lee, Clarence, Jerome, Johnny and Bernard.

She is survived by her children: Teresa (Leo) and Jason (Shadae); a very special dear son: Frank (Tamara); grandchildren: Xavier, Victor Jr., Jaysha, Jason Jr., Victoria, Victory, Byron and Bryce; great grands: Jahrell, Jalaysia and Jacasia; sisters: Eva Mae, Shirley and Grace; along with a host of other relatives and friends.
