

Love ...

Our lives go on without you,
But nothing is the same
We have to hide our heartaches
When someone speaks your name.
Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent the tears that fall,
Living our hearts without you
Is the hardest part of all.
You did so many things for us
Your heart was kind and true,
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you.
The special years will not return
When we were all together,
But with the love within our hearts,
You will walk with us forever.

Lewis “Doc” Miller was born October 31, 1948, in Chicago, Illinois to the late Claude and Katherine Miller. He was oldest of six children. He graduated from J.W. Sexton High School and started working with General Motors and later ABM Janitorial Services. Lewis and Clara Miller were blessed with three children, Lewis III, Terrence, and Napoleon.

Lewis later met and married Janice Hill in 1995 and they were married for 29 years until Janice passed away in 2024. Many friends and family refer to Lewis as “Butch” and “Doc” and remembers him as one who was kind, loving, and had a giving heart.

Lewis’ family was his life and he enjoyed the times they would get together for cookouts and grilling good food. In spite of his health challenges, he did not let that stop him from sharing the special times with his grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
