

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Carroll Stephen “Lucky” Luckey

Carroll Stephen “Lucky” Luckey, 76, of Sedalia, Missouri, passed away on Saturday, August 22, 2026, at Rest Haven Convalescent Home in Sedalia. He was born on September 12, 1949, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, the son of Carroll Messer Luckey and Pauline (Stengel) Luckey, who preceded him in death.

On January 25, 1980, in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, he was united in marriage to Elva Jay Burk, who preceded him in death on February 23, 2019.

Lucky was a member of the First United Methodist Church, Sedalia and a member of Sedalia Masonic Lodge #242 AF & AM Sedalia.

Lucky had a lifelong love of cooking and worked as a restaurant cook for many years. He especially enjoyed sharing stories about the time he cooked at the Opryland Hotel in Nashville. Outside of the kitchen, Lucky enjoyed watching Western movies and was a devoted fan of Elvis Presley. He was also well known for his extensive collection of hats.

While living at Olsen West Apartments, Lucky enjoyed being involved in the lives of his neighbors and fellow residents. He was always willing to lend a helping hand, whether it was calling Bingo, walking other residents’ dogs, or simply being there when someone needed him.

His faith and community involvement were important parts of his life. Lucky was a member of First United Methodist Church in Sedalia, where he especially enjoyed singing in the church choir. He was a Master Mason and former member of Granite Lodge #272 AF & AM.

Lucky is survived by a sister, Elizabeth Mora of Sacramento, California; his stepson, Warren Trivett and his wife, Mary, of Sedalia; three children from a previous marriage; and other extended family and friends.
