A Legacy of Love

“Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her.” Proverbs 31:28

Patsy Leigh Jordan was born on February 1, 1936, in Cincinnati, Ohio to devoted parents, the late Nannie Pearl and Daniel Richard Tye. Patsy, was the second of seven children... Daniel, Lee Ann, Barbara, and Dewayne... all of whom were raised in a loving faithful centered home. She was preceded in death by her sister, Mary and brother Donald.

She was raised in Mt. Carmel Baptist Church and baptized in The Ohio River at a young age. Patsy remained a devoted church member of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church for years where she was a faithful member. She later moved her membership to Beecher Street Church of Christ for a number of years. Years later she joined Lockland Church of Christ, where she was a member until her passing.

Patsy attended Cincinnati Public Schools, graduating in 1954, from Woodward High School. Born to be a hair stylist, Patsy followed a burning passion to become a hairdresser. After her high school graduation, she enrolled in Cincinnati's Cosmetology School. Her training, combined with her creative gift, turned her into the “personal hair stylist” for her mother, sisters, cousins, neighbors, friends and nieces. On Easter, she treated some of her female family members with Shirley Temple curls, which lasted for a month... and Patsy's finger waves lasted even longer.

Patsy met the love of her life, Carlwell Houston Jordan, at the tender age of 22. The couple was married on July 22, 1961. Carlwell H. Jordan was the greatest husband a woman could imagine, a Godly man, strong provider, encourager and supporter. Patsy was a spoiled adult. They were blessed with six children, Carroll, Erryol, Alesia, Darryol, Tosha, Derrick and bonus son Carl E. Jordan. She was preceded in death by her two sons, Derrick and Carroll.

Patsy was also skillful in dreaming up creative ways to teach and prepare her children for successful lives. Her children watched her cook wonderful meals daily for their family and anyone who stopped by to visit. She was blessed with the opportunity to be a stay-at-home Mom, dedicating herself wholeheartedly to her children, their friends and helping create the foundation of Hackberry Street's true “village.” Patsy taught her children the importance of independence, standing up for themselves, leadership, and living with strong principles and values.

World Book Encyclopedias and dictionaries were always close at hand. She made sure her children completed their homework, did their chores, and understood the importance of responsibility. Patsy stood on business—there was no time for nonsense! She loved attending and watching The Cincinnati Reds and Bengals, playing cards and board games. She used The Game of Finance to teach money skills and Scrabble to broaden her children's vocabulary and spelling knowledge. Monopoly started on Friday nights, often paused on Sundays, and resumed the following weekend.

Patsy made sure her children had everything a child could dream of, from Schwinn bicycles and Big Wheels, to swing sets and a treehouse. She created a childhood filled with love, opportunity, structure, adventure, and memories that would last a lifetime.

Patsy was a marathon shopper, so many times closing the stores in Middletown, Dayton, Eastgate, Tri-county and Florence Malls. She was stylish and fashionable in her attire as well as her house. Only pinch-pleated curtains and shears would suffice for the windows in the Jordan's home. She applied the same “eye” for color and texture when it came to dressing her family. After her children left the house, she decided to work for Sears & Roebuck and later joined First Student, where she worked from March 2006 to 2019 as a bus monitor for special needs children.

Patsy loved her family and found great joy in being a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, sibling, aunt and great-aunt. She will forever be cherished by her husband, Carlwell Jordan; children, Carl E. Jordan, Errol P. Jordan, Alesia A. Jordan (Anthony) McMillan, Darryol A. (Dr. Wanda) Jordan, Tosha L. Jordan and ; Grandchildren, Nashawnda, Houston, Rodriquez, Tyanna, Terrell, Darryn, Jordinae, Kamryn, Delon and Maria; Great-Grandchildren, Azaria, Aariah, Rodriquez, Faith, Ramir, Amore and Cairo; Siblings, Daniel R. (Stephanie) Tye Jr., Lee Ann Bennett, Barbara J. Grace, Dewayne (Mary)Tye. She will also be dearly missed by a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, cousins, extended family members and friends.

"I'll Fly Away"

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives, until we meet again.

"YOU MAY BE GONE FROM MY SIGHT, BUT YOU ARE NEVER GONE FROM MY HEART."

FAREWELL TO MY BELOVED WIFE, PATSY L. JORDAN

TO MY BEAUTIFUL, LOVING WIFE, PATSY L. JORDAN,

UNTIL DEATH CAME, WE SHARED NEARLY 69 WONDERFUL YEARS TOGETHER. FROM OUR EARLY SWEETHEART DAYS, WE MADE SO MANY PRECIOUS MEMORIES. I STILL REMEMBER RIDING TOGETHER IN OUR BUICK CONVERTIBLE, WITH YOUR BEAUTIFUL HAIR DANCING IN THE WIND.

WE ENJOYED GOING TO THE DRIVE-IN MOVIES AND, AS YOUNG PEOPLE, WE WERE ABLE TO DO SO MANY THINGS TOGETHER. THOSE MEMORIES ARE TREASURES THAT I WILL CARRY IN MY HEART FOR THE REST OF MY LIFE.

FAREWELL, MY TRUE LOVE. YOU WILL ALWAYS BE WITH ME. DEAR WIFE, I MISS YOU MORE THAN WORDS CAN SAY. I REMEMBER WHEN YOU WERE SICK AND WOULD SOMETIMES QUIETLY SAY, "I HURT." MY DEAR LOVE, I AM HURTING NOW, TOO, AND I KNOW I WILL CONTINUE TO HURT UNTIL THE DAY I AM CALLED HOME.

REST IN PEACE, MY DEAR WIFE. I PRAY THAT WHEN THE RESURRECTION COMES, WE WILL RISE TOGETHER AND BE REUNITED, NEVER TO BE SEPARATED AGAIN.

UNTIL THAT BEAUTIFUL DAY,
I WILL CARRY YOUR LOVE AND OUR MEMORIES IN MY HEART FOREVER.

"WHEN SOMEONE YOU LOVE BECOMES A MEMORY, THE MEMORY BECOMES A TREASURE."

Mom, You Don't Owe Me Nothing!!! Love, EP

1 Corinthians 13:4-7 KJV

4. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up.
5. Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;
6. Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;
7. Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

AND MISSED BEYOND MEASURE."

The Love You Left Behind

Your hands gave comfort, your voice made us feel at home.
In every moment spent with you, we knew we weren't alone.
We'll miss the way you loved us in all the little things you'd do.
And as we gather here today, we carry memories of you.
Though we cannot hold your hand, your love will always stay—
In the stories that we share and the lives you shaped each day.
