

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I will dwell in the house
of the LORD forever.

Acknowledgements

We want to thank each of you for the hugs, the stories, the flowers, and yes – even the awkward silences. You've helped us laugh through tears, smile through memories, and feel a little less alone.

Mandell would have loved this send-off – a room full of love, laughter, and maybe a few off-key hymns. Whether you came from far away or just around the corner, we're so grateful for your kindness and support.
Keep sharing the good stories, keep hugging
each other tight, and maybe raise a glass in his honor sometime. That's exactly how Mandell would want to be remembered.
With love, laughter, and heartfelt thanks,

Obituary

Mandell Hazeley, age 71, of Cincinnati, Ohio, passed away peacefully on July 14, 2025, in his hometown. Born on September 19, 1953 in Cincinnati, Mandell was a lifelong resident who touched many lives with his warmth, generosity, and unmistakable personality. Mandell dedicated many years of his career to Xavier University, where he served as Facilities Manager. His work ethic, reliability, and pride in his role left a lasting impression on colleagues and the campus community alike. Mandell had a deep love for music, sports—especially his beloved Cincinnati Bengals, the world of boxing and cooking for those he loved. Whether he was cheering on his team, preparing a family meal, or sharing stories set to a soulful soundtrack, he brought joy to those around him. A man known for his big heart and even bigger personality, Mandell was always willing to lend a hand—or the shirt off his back—to anyone in need. He was caring and loyal, though known for a bit of stubbornness that his family and friends came to admire as part of his charm.

Mandell was preceded in death by his mother, Harriet Hazeley, as well as his sister, Deborah Hazeley and brother, Rodney Hazeley. He is survived by his beloved children, Aisha Hazeley, Carin Armstrong (Cameron Armstrong), and Sharde' Strong (Jason Strong); and his cherished grandchildren, Christopher Jones, Kyla Armstrong, Ronnie Black Jr., Chase Pesante, Emeri Strong, and Hendrix Strong. He is also survived by nephews, Damian Hazeley (Amber Hazeley), Hasani Hazeley (Madeline Hazeley), and Manu Hazeley; great niece, Drew Hazeley and great nephews, Ayce Hazeley and Hudson Hazeley. Along with a host of loving aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Mandell's legacy lives on through the love of his family, the memories he created, and the lives he touched with his kindness, laughter, and unwavering spirit.
