

OBITUARY

Jon Whites, born on November 13, 1942, in Johnson County, Texas, passed away peacefully at home on October 24, 2025, in Cleburne, Texas. He leaves behind a legacy of love, strength, and dedication to the Lord that will be forever cherished by his family and friends.

Jon was a devoted husband to his beloved wife, Dolores "Dee" Whites. Together, they created a warm and welcoming home, raising their daughters, Robin Whites and Dawn Money, whom he adored. Jon's family expanded with the arrival of his grandchildren, Kristen Money, Sgt. Nolan Money and his wife Allison, and Bradon Hapeman, each of whom brought immense joy to his life. He was immensely proud of each of them.

He is also survived by his sister, Jenita Masters, along with numerous cousins, nieces and nephews who have fond memories of their time with him. Jon's influence extended beyond his family, touching the lives of many friends who will remember him with great affection. Jon never met a stranger.

Jon was preceded in death by his parents, James Thomas and Pauline (Browing) Whites, as well as his daughter, Robin Whites, and son-in-law, Gerald Money. He is also reunited in spirit with his brothers, James Thomas "J. T." Whites Jr. and his wife Maxine, and Gary Whites and his wife Sheila.

Jon Whites will be remembered for his kind spirit, unwavering dedication to his family, and the countless lives he touched throughout his journey. His legacy will live on in the hearts of those who loved him.
