

"From Your Loving Family"

God saw you getting tired, and cure was not to be, so he put his arms around you and whispered Come to me. With tearful eyes, we watched you and saw you pass away, and although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay. A golden heart stopped beating, working hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us that he only takes the best.

Obituary

Beverly Ann Sanders was born on February 1st, 1956, to the Late James L. and Virginia Brooks, nee Wilder, in Cincinnati, Ohio. She was preceded in death by her brother Marvin Brooks.

As the seventh of eight children, Ann, as she was known by her family and friends, was very close to her parents. She was raised in the Walnut Hills area of Cincinnati, which is where she made numerous life-long connections. She attended Hughes High School and was baptized at Evergreen Baptist Church.

Later in life, she would attend Cross Roads Church in Oakley. She met George E. Sanders in her late teens, and they would go on to get married on August 17, 1992. Bev (as she was known to coworkers) had many different job titles throughout her working Career. The company that she devoted most of her professional time to was Episcopal Retirement Homes. She was also a caregiver/mother figure to younger generations.

Bev was a person who prided herself in being responsible and very hard working. Always putting others first, being a dependable and caring person who others could call on in their time of need. Everyone who knew Bev benefited from her love and generosity. She cared deeply for her children and grandchildren.

Ann departed this life on November 20th, 2025. She leaves behind, not to mourn her loss but to honor her love and memories, her husband George E. Sanders, her Children, Mark (April) Brooks. Cashauna Brooks, George (Allison) Sanders, Katia Milon, Andre (Jenna) Sanders, and Gavin (Devine) Sanders. 23 grandkids, 7 great-grandkids. Her Aunt Mary Wilder, four brothers, Willie C. (Dawn) Brooks, Melvin (Kay) Brooks, (Wanda) Brooks, Robert (Vicki) Brooks, Pierre (Sandra) Brooks. Two Sisters Bobbi Jean (Willie)Thompson, Earnestine Jackson, and along with a host of cousins' nieces and nephews, sisters, and brothers-in-law.
