

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;

Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Corey Ethan Thrasher was born to Robyn and Charles Thrasher in Cincinnati, Ohio. From a young age, Corey was active, full of life, and had a love for football. He played football throughout his childhood and continued playing through high school.

Corey attended Mount Healthy High School and later graduated from Diamond Oaks, where he earned his education in Culinary Arts. Corey was also a dedicated employee of Kraft Heinz and a member of New Life Missionary Baptist Church.

Corey was a son, father, brother, family man, and friend. He was the kind of person who could walk into a room and make his presence known. Funny, hardworking, outgoing, and always dressed in the flyest clothes, Corey had a personality that was impossible to forget. He was popular, well-loved, and had a way of making people laugh and creating memories wherever he went. He carried his passion for cooking throughout his life and took pride in his ability to bring people together through good food and good times. He was loved by many, known by many, and truly one of a kind.

One of Corey's greatest passions was riding motorcycles. Riding wasn't a simple hobby for Corey, it was part of who he was. The freedom and excitement that came with riding was a meaningful part of his life. He was a proud member of Bike Lyfe, where he shared his passion for motorcycles and formed friendships and memories that will continue to live on.

And while Corey loved his motorcycles, his family was his heart.

Corey was preceded in death by his mother, Robyn Thrasher; grandfather, Charlie Freeman; grandmothers, Betty Jean Thrasher and Georgia Moore; and uncles, Turner Thrasher and Milton Jarmon.

He leaves to cherish his memory his father, Charles Thrasher; sisters, Patrece Bradford and Chadae Thrasher; son, Corey Thrasher Jr.; daughter, Sevyn Thrasher; and Mauresa Stephens and Maur'King Stephens, who held a special place in his heart. He is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who loved him dearly.

He was a great father and a true family man. He loved his son and embraced the children in his life with love and care.

Today, we don't simply mourn Corey, we celebrate him.

We celebrate the man who could make you laugh.

We celebrate the man who worked hard.

We celebrate the man who always knew how to look good doing it.

We celebrate the father, son, brother, and friend.

We celebrate the cook, storyteller, the jokester, and the motorcycle rider.

We celebrate the memories, the laughter, the conversations, and the moments that we will remember Corey by.

The road may have changed, but your ride continues.

Ride on, Fatsack. Your journey will forever continue in the hearts of those who love you.

Cherished Memories

May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be ALWAYS at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face.
And the rains fall soft upon your fields,
And until we meet again,
May GOD hold you in the palm of His hand.
