JOHN HENRY EASON

Henry

He cherished family gatherings, and his presence during holidays and celebrations brought warmth and joy to everyone around him. John had many passions in life, including traveling, shopping, cooking, and meticulously detailing his vehicle. He loved sharing these interests with his children and grandchildren. Known for his strong faith and his sense of humor, he could light up any room he entered.

He is survived by his loving wife, Lydia; his children, Jessica Delafuente, John and Brandon Eason; and his seven grandchildren. He is also survived by his siblings Steve, Margaret, Annette, and Michael, along with many nieces, nephews, and friends who will miss him dearly. John was preceded in death by his parents, Stephen and Mary Eason, and his beloved daughter, Constanze.

Rest in peace, dear husband, father, brother, grandfather, and friend. Your memory will live in our hearts forever.

'The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul.' ~Psalm 23

John was born on August 11, 1957, in Emporia, Virginia, the son of the late Stephen and Mary Eason. He grew up in the Emporia area, where he developed a strong work ethic and a deep love for his family. After graduating from Greenville County High School, he went to Flatwoods Job Corp Center, in Coeburn, Virginia where he pursued Masonry. John then went on to join the United States Army, where he proudly served for more than 21 years.

A devoted husband to Lydia, John was a pillar of strength and support. Together, they raised two beautiful children, Constanze Kendrick and Jessica Delafuente. He was a loving and dedicated father—always ready with guidance, encouragement, and a hearty laugh.

Life is But A STOPPING PLACE

Life is but a stopping place,

A pause in what's to be,

A resting place along the road,

to sweet eternity.

We all have different journeys,

Different paths along the way,

We all were meant to learn some things,

but never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,

Far greater than we know.

For some the journey's quicker,

For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,

We'll claim a great reward,

And find an everlasting peace,

Together with the lord.
