Life Reflection

Rudolph Norwood Lloyd, affectionately known as Rudy, was born on June 10, 1958, in New York. He entered eternal rest on June 16, 2025, at Roper Hospital in Charleston, South Carolina.

Rudy was preceded in death by his parents, Rudolph Norwood and Oralee Lloyd Blake, and one sibling, Shelia R. Lloyd.

He received his education through the Berkeley County School District in Moncks Corner, SC. Rudy spent most of his career in the janitorial services industry and later retired from JW Aluminum in Goose Creek, SC.

Rudy was a faithful member of Greater Emanuel AME Church where he served proudly on the Usher Board.

He enjoyed watching football—his all-time favorite player being Tom Brady. He also liked NASCAR racing and car shows, and found joy in fishing with his family and mowing lawns. More than anything, Rudy loved cooking and eating fish and crabs.

He will be remembered for his beautiful smile, infectious laughter, and playful spirit.

Cherishing his memory are his children: Latasha Collins and Latisha Waters (Davon Waters), both of New York; Antoine Becton of Moncks Corner, SC; Javon Green (Travis Green) of Summerville, SC; Kenyata Butler (Kevin Butler) of St. Stephen, SC; and Radashia Lloyd of Charleston, SC. He also leaves behind his siblings, Blondia Hamilton (Deacon Jacob Hamilton) and Joann Lloyd, both of Moncks Corner, SC; and one uncle, John Lloyd (Linda Lloyd) of Perryville, MD.

He is also survived by seventeen grandchildren; his goddaughter, Veanna Bickcom; best friend, Lawrence Bradley; a close friend, Jetsine Pou; three special cousins and caregivers, Hattie Flowers, Robin Baxter, and Brenda “Joyce” Johnson, all of Moncks Corner, SC; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and dear friends.
