She Is Gone

*You can shed tears that she is gone
Or you can smile because she has lived.*

*You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.*

*Your heart can be empty because you can't see her
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.*

*You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.*

*You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.*

*You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back
Or you can do what she would want; smile, open your eyes, love and go on.*

*A*CKNOWLEDGEMENTS

*The family of Alexandria D. Walton would like to thank Pastor Victor Davis, the Trinity Baptist Church family, and friends for your many acts of kindness.
The phone calls, prayers, financial contributions, and acts of kindness was greatly appreciated. Please continue to pray for the family as we now travel on a new journey without our beloved Alex.*

Obituary

Alexandria Desiree Walton, affectionately known as “Alex” was born on July 4, 1996, and took her last breath on March 16, 2025, in Columbus, Ohio.

Alex was educated through the Columbus Public School system and graduated from Eastmoor Academy High School. She furthered her education at Wright State University in Dayton, Ohio, studying International Business. Alex’s artistry and creativity shifted her focus to beauty, as she attended and graduated from Mason Anthony School of Cosmetology, where she became a licensed nail technician in the State of Ohio. Alex’s pursuit of success, goals, and entrepreneurship continued as she later opened and operated Aqua Luxe Nail Spa through IMAGE Studios.

Alex loved traveling, eating good food, shopping, and spending quality time with her family and friends. She loved being a big sister to her little brother, Christian, and thought she was his mother because she could tell him what to do, and he would reluctantly listen. Making others smile, laugh, and feel important was Alex’s goal, along with a smile of approval from her mother. Alex was successful in reaching these goals beyond any heights imaginable.

Alexandria committed her faith to the Lord at a young age and was a member of Trinity Baptist Church. Although she did not sing in any choir, her love for music and singing at the top of her lungs at any random moment brought laughter and joy to all who experienced her mini-concerts.

Alex will be remembered as a bright light who warmed the souls of everyone she encountered. Her smile and shine are forever etched in the minds and hearts of everyone who knew her, and her legacy will linger, as Alex will be known as a precious gift.

Alex is preceded in death by her grandparents, Valance Leroda Robinson and Robin Robinson, and her great-grandparents, Henderson and Julia Robinson.

Alexandria’s spirit will forever live in the heart of her mother, Valarie Robinson, “earthly” father, affectionately known as “Rob”, Robert Walton; biological father Juan Walton, (no relation); brother, Christian Robinson; goddaughter Zuri Mayes; uncles Henderson Robinson, John (Kalya) Houston, Lorenzo (Sean) Colbert, Everett (Rahylan) Colbert; aunt Misti Mathews; great-aunts April Little, Victoria (Harold) Yarborough; and godmother Chereysse Walker. Additionally, Alex leaves behind her grandmother, Ejuan Walton; grandfather’s brother, Marshall (Kathy) Robinson; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends
