Obituary

Letitia Ann Haag was born on February 27, 1960, in Columbus, Ohio, to the late Herbert and Pernilla Mae Coleman. She attended Mohawk Junior-Senior High School, where she received her diploma on June 6, 1978. Letitia was a proud member of Mohawk's final graduate senior class.

Following high school, Letitia continued her education at Columbus Technical Institute (CTI), where she earned an associate degree in Criminology in August 1984.

Letitia worked for The Ohio State University for many years until her retirement. During her time at Ohio State, she met her loving husband, John, whom she affectionately called "Honey Bun." Their relationship became a cherished part of her life and journey.

As a child, Letitia was raised at Metropolitan Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Rev. Robert A. Myers. During her time there, she was a Guild Girl and sang in the Young Adult Choir. In her later years, she joined Exodus Fellowship Church under the leadership of Rev. Curtis Calloway. At the time of her passing, Letitia was a member of Northwest Church of the Nazarene under the leadership of Pastor Sam Samoes. There, she found a loving and supportive church community that surrounded her with care, encouragement, and prayer, especially throughout her illness.

Letitia was preceded in death by her parents, Herbert and Pernilla Mae Coleman; her sisters, Wanda Payne, Mary Tolliver, and Arie Perkins; her brothers, Leon, Ralph, Shedrick Miles, and Roderick Coleman; her maternal and paternal grandparents; one uncle; four aunts; her best friend, Sheila Smith; and her beloved pets, Little One and Tinker Bell.

Letitia leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband, John R. Haag; her beloved dogs, Rolo and Biscuit; her brothers-in-law, Charles (Becky) Haag and Mark Haag; her sister-in-law, Mary A. Border; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, great-nephews, great-great-nieces, and great-great-nephews.

Letitia will be remembered for the love she shared, the relationships she treasured, and the lasting memories she leaves with all who knew and loved her.

Until We Meet Again

We think about you always,
We talk about you still,
You have never been forgotten,
and you never will.

We hold you close within our hearts,
and there you will remain,
to walk and guide us through our lives,
until we meet again.

"When someone you love becomes a memory, the memory becomes a treasure."

"We hold you close within our hearts and there you shall remain."

“Always loved, always remembered.”

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish for you the sunshine of tomorrow
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, my loved one's touch
If my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift up your heart, rejoice with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

She Is Gone

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived

You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back
Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love that you shared

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday

You can remember her and only that she is gone
Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.
