“LOVE”

In loving memory, we honor the life of Kevelin LaMont Conner, affectionately known as “Love.” Kevelin left an incredible mark on all of our lives.

Kevelin transitioned peacefully on February 17, 2026.

He was born on March 18, 1976, to Harriette Curry and Samuel Agee. He graduated from Linden High School in Linden, Alabama. In 1986, Kevelin’s family relocated to Lansing, Michigan.

Kevelin always made sure his family and friends were cared for — that’s how he earned the name “Love.” He enjoyed cooking, spending time with family and friends, and caring for his beloved dog, KJ.

One of Kevelin’s greatest joys was being a son, brother, father, and grandfather. He was deeply involved in the lives of his children and grandchildren. A true family man, Kevelin expressed his love through warm, embracing hugs that reflected his bright spirit and genuine heart. His love has left a lasting impression on us all.

Kevelin leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Harriette Curry; his children, Jameka McAbee (Keyonta), Kevelin Muhamud Conner, and Amadi Conner; his grandchildren, Jayden Givens and Julian Johns; his siblings, Katina Agee, Tawanna Lanier (Parnell), Shemeckia Conner, Tressalyn Agee (Lawrence Cole), Samuel Agee, and Bernard Agee; his grandmother, Ruby Agee (James); his aunts, Annie Chaney, Mary Sims (Willie), Lorelei Curry, Doris Hister, and Carrie House; his uncles, Derreanco Agee and Alan Agee; 12 nieces and nephews; bonus children, Willie, Ra’Neithiah Pepters, Shaquia Wright, and Shantorra Odegaard; godchildren, Antwan Phifer, Ta’Lynn Davis, Amair, and Alijah Johnson; bonus grandchildren, Kaleigha Jackson, Avah Ware, King Proffit, and Lariah Fountain; special cousins, Nathaniel Conner and Richard Perry; and special friends, Natasha “Buddy” Miller, Antwan Phifer, and Tony Clemens.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Arquetta Bibbs; his father, Sammy Agee; his great-grandmother, Leola Conner; his nephews, Tammeron and Tammarris Aikens; his stepfather, Robert Curry; his aunts, Eliza Walls Houston and Ethyl Conner; and his uncles, Nathaniel, Douglas, and Hayward Conner.

YOUR CHILDREN

We didn’t lose a father. We lost a legend. He was kind, smart, and giving. The man you called when you needed help, the one who always showed up.

He Loved his children out loud, he loved his grandchildren even louder.

He pulled up to games with Gatorade and sack lunches, making sure every kid felt seen. That was his heart, big enough for everybody.

So, yes – our hearts hurt. But we stand tall because of the man who raised us.

We are his children; we are his legacy.

And as long as we love the way he loved and show up the way he showed up –
He will always be our legend.

WAITING FOR YOU BROTHER

I've been waiting here.
Where pain is gone and skies are clear.
Though tears were shed when you passed through.
My heart rejoiced to welcome you.

No more suffering, no more pain.
Only peace in Heaven's rain.
Together now, we walk in light.
Wrapped in love, forever bright.

Until our family joins us too.
We'll watch with love and guide them through
Side by side. As we once knew
Your sister waits in Heaven with you.

Your baby sister,
Arquetta Bibbs

MY SON

My precious son, my heart, my light
I held you close both day and night.
Though you're no longer here with me
Your love remains my memory.

I miss your voice, your gentle touch.
The little things that meant so much.
Until we meet again above,
You rest within a mother's love.

Love you and forever,
Your Mom

FOR OUR BROTHER

You were our brother, our steady hand.
Our childhood friend, our greatest fan.
Through every laugh and every tear,
You stood beside us, always near.

Though you're gone from sight today,
In our hearts, you'll always stay.
Forever loved, forever true.
A part of us lives on in you.

Love you and forever,
Your siblings
