

In Loving Memory of Jack Larion Sexton
March 6, 1935 — April 21, 2025

Jack Larion Sexton, born on March 6, 1935, in Madison County, Georgia, passed away on April 21, 2025, at Tucker Hospice House. He enjoyed a commendable career as a brick mason for over 40 years, where his hard work and dedication earned him the respect of his peers and the community.

Jack was known as a good, God-fearing man who devoted his life to putting his wife and family first. His loved ones remember him as a man of great character, who found profound joy in both his family and his faith. He was a devoted member of Sloan Lake Community Church, where he cherished the fellowship of his fellow congregants.

In addition to his commitment to work and family, Jack had a zest for life that extended into the great outdoors. He loved fishing, particularly surf fishing at the coast, and had a remarkable ability to catch fish when others could not. His passion for nature and the tranquility it brought was a source of joy throughout his life.

Jack is survived by his sons, Scott Sexton and Shane Sexton (fiancé Lori Jordan). He leaves behind granddaughters Hannah Smith (husband Ryan), and Grace Sexton, along with his beloved great-grandchildren, Kaiden and Evelyn.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Joyce, and eight siblings.

Jack Larion Sexton will be remembered for his unwavering dedication to his family, his labor, and his faith, leaving behind a legacy that will continue to inspire all who knew him.

Psalm 23

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.*

*He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.*

*Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*
