Memories to Cherish

For My Beloved Husband, Clyde Precious Wade

For forty-two years, we walked hand in hand,
Building a life from love, faith, and steadfast plans.
Through seasons of joy and moments of sorrow,
You gave me strength for each new tomorrow.
Clyde, you were my shelter, my partner, my friend,
A love so true that time could never end.
Your gentle heart and unwavering grace
Brought warmth and comfort to every place.
We shared laughter that echoed through the years,
And held each other through trials and tears.
Together we dreamed, together we grew,
And every cherished memory begins with you.
Though today I must say a painful goodbye,
I find peace knowing your spirit will never die.
In every sunrise, in every evening star,
I will feel your presence, never far.
Thank you for the life we were blessed to share,
For your devotion, your kindness, and your care.
The vows we made remain forever true—
My heart still belongs completely to you.
Until we meet again in Heaven above,
I will carry you always with enduring love.
Rest peacefully, my dear husband, my treasure, my guide,
Forever and always, my beloved Clyde.

Your wife, Ruthie Mae

A brother's love is a gift that never fades,
And your memory will remain forever in our hearts.

We shared a lifetime of laughter, stories, and love,
And we are grateful for every moment we had with you.

Though we will miss your smile and gentle presence,
We find comfort in the bond we will always share.

Rest peacefully, dear brother.
Until we meet again, you will be loved,
remembered, and missed.

With love,

Jane and Sheila

Dad

You were our protector, our teacher, and our guide,
A steady source of love throughout our lives.
The lessons you taught, the values you shared,
And the love you gave will remain with us forever.
Though we will miss you deeply,
We are grateful for the blessing of calling you Dad.
Your legacy lives on in each of us,
And your memory will forever be held in our hearts.

With love,
Latoya, Tammy, April, Calvin, and Timmy
