

Psalm 23

1 The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

*2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.*

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

*5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Virginia Louise Harms

Virginia Louise Harms, a beloved mother, grandmother, and friend, passed away at the age of 101 on October 9, 2024, at Good Samaritan Care Center in Cole Camp, MO. A longtime resident of Sedalia, MO, she was a shining light in the lives of all who knew her.

Born in Lincoln, MO, on December 18, 1922, Louise was the daughter of Myral and Goldie (Means) Taylor. She graduated from Lincoln High School and later attended Kansas City Business College, paving the way for a successful career as a secretary in the insurance industry, serving companies in both Kansas City and Sedalia.

On December 23, 1945, Louise married Lawrence Hubert Harms in California, MO. Their partnership was filled with love and joy until Lawrence's passing on October 1, 1997. Louise was a dedicated member of the Lutheran Church, most recently worshipping at Christ & Trinity Lutheran Church (ELCA), where her faith and community were central to her life.

Louise had a zest for life, embracing activities such as camping, fishing, and traveling, which allowed her to create lasting memories with her family. She was also an avid reader with a keen interest in history and genealogy, always eager to share stories of her family's heritage.

Louise is survived by her son, Lawrence "Larry" Keith Harms (Connie Johnson) of Lincoln, MO; three grandchildren, Carrie Lynn, Keith Aaron, and April Michelle; six great-grandchildren; her daughter-in-law, Connie Harms (David Eckhoff); and many beloved nieces and nephews who will cherish her memory.

She was preceded in death by her husband; her son, Kent Harms; her brother, Myral "Don" Taylor; her sisters, Faye Clevenger and Dorothy Gerken; and her great-grandson, Jesse Harms.
