

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul.

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

And I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

Obituary

Steven "Steve" Brookins was born on August 15, 1957, to the late John and Jessie Brookins in Cincinnati, Ohio. He was a beloved brother to Yvonne and Betty, uncle, cousin, and friend.

Steve was a proud graduate of Withrow High School. He worked at U.S. Shoe for many years until his retirement.

Steve had a love for the simple things that brought him joy. He had a passion for cooking and grilling and enjoyed spending time working on and restoring cars. He especially loved racing cars and attending car shows, and he even enjoyed drag racing. In his younger years, Steve also enjoyed roller skating, making memories and enjoying good times.

A man with many interests, Steve loved Star Trek, old movies, and smooth jazz. Whether he was working on a car, preparing something on the grill, enjoying a favorite movie, or simply spending time with family and friends, Steve had a way of enjoying life on his own terms.

Steve leaves to cherish his memory his nephew and niece Antonio and Jerika, along with his cousins, and longtime friends. Among those who will remember him are Barry Harkness, Darren Harkness, Calvin Harkness, Theo Taylor, Everette Howard, and Dwight Jackson, along with many others whose lives he touched.
