

View Michael Korber Obituary

Services In Care Of
Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel of the Chimes

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Michael William Korber

December 9, 1957 ~ January 15, 2025

View Michael Korber Obituary

Services In Care Of
Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel of the Chimes

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF

Michael William Korber

December 9, 1957 ~ January 15, 2025

Dad, we say goodbye to you today,
but goodbyes are not forever
Your heart was gold, your laugh light,
your mind was sharp and clever.

You worked in quiet grace
through numbers, forms, and deadlines tight.
Our tax guy by trade,
working tirelessly through the night

You taught us the value of patience
And care, to always do our best.
In every task, you gave your all,
But now it's time to rest.

You knew the scores, the stats, the trivia,
A fan with knowledge, and with pride.
You taught us the game,
Our coach, always by our side.

Your grandkids look up to you,
So watch over them as they grow older.
We'll know just where to find you,
When we need to cry upon your shoulder.

Now though, we mourn in passing quiet,
Your absence leaves a void.
In the hearts of all your family
The pain will not be destroyed.

But we will carry on all you've taught us,
With your voice still in our minds.
Always pressing forward,
never pressing rewind.

When we hear those songs on the radio,
We'll know you are here.
Giving us strength, hope, security and warmth.
With you, there is no fear.

So goodbye for now, our best friend, our Dad.
You are our favorite person.
In the matters of death and taxes,
Your everlasting love is certain.

~BRYANT KORBER

In Memory Of

Michael William Korber

Date of Birth
December 9, 1957
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Date of Death
January 15, 2025
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Prayer Service

6:00 PM, January 23, 2025
Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel

Officiating

Father Carl Gallinger

Cremation in Care Of
Cheyenne Memorial Services

Dad, we say goodbye to you today,
but goodbyes are not forever
Your heart was gold, your laugh light,
your mind was sharp and clever.

You worked in quiet grace
through numbers, forms, and deadlines tight.
Our tax guy by trade,
working tirelessly through the night

You taught us the value of patience
And care, to always do our best.
In every task, you gave your all,
But now it's time to rest.

You knew the scores, the stats, the trivia,
A fan with knowledge, and with pride.
You taught us the game,
Our coach, always by our side.

Your grandkids look up to you,
So watch over them as they grow older.
We'll know just where to find you,
When we need to cry upon your shoulder.

Now though, we mourn in passing quiet,
Your absence leaves a void.
In the hearts of all your family
The pain will not be destroyed.

But we will carry on all you've taught us,
With your voice still in our minds.
Always pressing forward,
never pressing rewind.

When we hear those songs on the radio,
We'll know you are here.
Giving us strength, hope, security and warmth.
With you, there is no fear.

So goodbye for now, our best friend, our Dad.
You are our favorite person.
In the matters of death and taxes,
Your everlasting love is certain.

~BRYANT KORBER

In Memory Of

Michael William Korber

Date of Birth
December 9, 1957
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Date of Death
January 15, 2025
Cheyenne, Wyoming

Prayer Service

6:00 PM, January 23, 2025
Wiederspahn-Radomsky Chapel

Officiating

Father Carl Gallinger

Cremation in Care Of
Cheyenne Memorial Services