

OBITUARY

Robert L. Bachhofer, Jr., a beloved member of the community, passed away on November 9, 2025, in Fort Worth, Texas. Born on June 18, 1933, in Kopperl, Texas, Robert led a life marked by faith, service, and dedication.

Having called Azle home since 2010, Robert was known for his strong ties to the local community and his unwavering commitment to his church. Robert was a current member of the Ash Creek Baptist Church. Previously, he devoted 14 years to Calvary Baptist Church, where he found purpose in working alongside men on the Family Life Center and the Annex building, further exemplifying his dedication to nurturing both his faith and community.

A man of profound belief, Robert read through the Bible an impressive 17 times, which underscored the central role of spirituality in his life. His faith was a guiding force and a source of inspiration not only for himself but for those fortunate enough to know him.

Robert married Pauline Payne on January 28, 1956, and shared 65 years of marriage.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Robert Lee Bachhofer, Sr. and Zelma Lee (Culpepper) Bachhofer; his beloved wife, Pauline (Payne) Bachhofer; his niece, Ellen Morris; his sister, Lorene Morris, and brother-in-law, Fred Morris.

Robert is survived by his nieces and nephews, Bryan Morris, Helen Wallace and her husband Clarence, Johnetta Allred and her husband Scott; great-nieces and nephews Sandy McKinley, Bryan and Shani Morris, and Becky and James Grant, Danny and Kathy Morris, and a host of other relatives and friends who cherished his gentle spirit and kindness.

Robert L. Bachhofer, Jr. will be remembered not only for his faith and community service but also for the love he shared with his family and friends.

II Timothy IV: 6-8

For I am already being poured out like a drink offering, and the time for my departure is near. 7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. 8 Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing.
