Obituary

Troy Darnell Edwards was born on December 26, 1972, in Akron, Ohio, to Cora Edwards and Willie Amos, alongside his six siblings. He would later move to Cleveland, Ohio, and attend Cleveland Public Schools.

From a young age, he exhibited qualities such as resilience, intelligence, and a provider mindset. Troy embarked on a career in industrial plant work, where his dedication and hard work earned him the respect and admiration of colleagues and everyone he encountered.

Beyond his professional achievements, Troy was a man of many passions and talents. He found joy in landscaping, boxing matches, and attending car auctions. Whether it was watching stand-up comedy or spending time with his family, Troy lived life with enthusiasm and gratitude.

Family was at the center of Troy's life. At 20 years old, Troy welcomed his first daughter, Latroya. He later met his wife, Christina, whom he married on August 7, 2005. Together, they built a home filled with love, laughter, and cherished memories. As a father, he was a pillar of strength and guidance to his children: Christian, Tianni, Ciannah, Tiyzaeah, and Royal, teaching them the values of hard work, compassion, and integrity. His granddaughter, Shiloh, was his pride and joy, and he delighted in every moment spent with her.

Troy is survived by his loving siblings: Tracey, Curtis, Lashonda (Patrick), and Tiffany. He cherished each of them deeply.

Troy was preceded in death by his beloved brothers, Scottie and Jr., whose memories he carried throughout his life.

Troy leaves behind many loving nieces, nephews, and other loved ones who were blessed to know him and will miss him dearly.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I've now found peace at the end of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss;
Oh yes, these things, I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow
Look for the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seems all to brief;
Don't lengthen your pain with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee,
God wanted me now; He set me free.*
