The Obituary

On Tuesday, September 9, 2025, Mrs. Doris Carpenter Hill, 80, passed away peacefully at Atrium Union in Monroe with her family gathered at her bedside.

Doris was born December 5, 1944, in Anson County, NC and was a daughter of the late Robert Lee Carpenter and the late Esther Baucom Hill. She was a graduate of Bowman High School

While in early years she worked in banking and at Wade Manufacturing, her main and productive career was that of wife, mother, grandmother, pastor's wife, and friend. She took the role God placed on her life seriously and was indeed devoted to her family.

Those who are left to cherish her memory are her husband 55 years, Rev. Steve Hill; her children, Lori Hill-Stikeleather and husband, Brian of Mooresville, Stephen Hill and wife, Stephanie of Peachland, Justin Chris and wife, Anita of Marshville, Diedre Suzanne Hill of Peachland and Daniel Hill and wife, Alisha of Peachland; her grandchildren, Gavin Dipple, Ashton Stikeleather, Addison Stikeleather, Claudia Hill, Andrew Hill, and Magnolia Hill; her brother, Gary Carpenter of Peachland and her nieces and nephews and their families.

Doris enjoyed gardening at home, both flowers and vegetables, watching hummingbirds and cardinals and keeping their feeders full and ready for them. She dearly loved time spent with her family, especially her grandchildren. Trips to the mountains were among her favorite past times, too.

She enjoyed playing the piano and loved to sing. She had been a part of a gospel singing group which included her husband. Her love for the Lord and his message was also evident in her support for her husband's ministry.

Flowers are appreciated but for those who desire, memorials may be made to the Autism Society of North Carolina, Attn: Donations, 5121 Kingdom Way, 100, Raleigh, NC 27607.

Proverbs 31

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She perceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. She is not afraid of the snow for her household: for all her household are clothed with scarlet. She maketh herself coverings of tapestry; her clothing is silk and purple. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. She maketh fine linen, and selleth it; and delivereth girdles unto the merchant. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.
