A SPECIAL THANKS

Buck Wheat's family offers our heartfelt thanks to everyone who contributed, supported and loved on us over the past few months. We are so grateful for the many expressions of kindness, sympathy, and encouragement..

A LIFE REMEMBERED

Buck's greatest joy was his family. He is survived by his brother Mike, his beloved wife Ruth, his children Rachel, Joshua, and Ashlee, and his treasured grandchildren Austin, Barrett, Connor, and Colby.

Music, dentistry, and the outdoors were all part of Buck's journey, but it was family that defined him most. His children, grandchildren, Ruth, Mike, and his extended family were his pride, and his love for them was boundless.

HALLELUJAH

This version of 'Hallelujah' was recorded by Larry Wheat, who sang, played guitar, and arranged the harmonies as a gift to his wife Ruth for her 70th birthday. It reflects his love, creativity, and faith — a song of both life's struggles and God's grace. We invite you to scan the code and share in this gift of music that meant so much to our family, especially Ruth.

ON HEAVEN'S STAGE

When his music paused down here,
it echoed through the skies,
a melody still carried on,
where sorrow never lies.
He's gathered up his favorite tunes,
the strings, the keys, the drum,
and every note he plays above
is brighter now it's sung.
His life became a song of hope,
a rhythm strong and true,
and now he's found a timeless stage
where harmonies renew.
So when we miss his voice below,
his laughter, steady hand,
we'll picture heaven's stage tonight—
with him to lead the band.
