His Story

Our precious little angel, Prince Ny'Aire Brown, beloved son of Johnya and Ja'quis Brown, of Oxford, Ohio, was born on February 9, 2026, and peacefully entered into eternal rest on July 12, 2026.

Prince was deeply loved by his parents, Johnya Brown and Ja'quis Brown; his grandparents, Darlene VanWinkle, Johnny Brown, Shameka Shavers, Tache Brown, Jaraius Gilbert, and Dewan Johnson; his great-grandparents, Charlotte Hollifield, Tommy Brown, Brenda Santos, Tony Santos, and John Brown; his big sister, Naomi Brown; and a host of loving aunts, uncles, cousins, family, and friends.

Prince truly adored his mother and father and will forever watch over them with love. During his short time on earth, he brought immeasurable love, joy, and happiness into the lives of everyone who knew him.

From the moment he entered this world, Prince filled every room with light. His beautiful brown eyes, sweet smile, and contagious giggles had a way of melting hearts. He was a happy, gentle, and loving little boy whose greatest gift was the joy he gave so freely to everyone blessed enough to know him.

Although his time with us was far too short, Prince taught us the deepest meaning of unconditional love. Every cuddle, every tiny hand wrapped around our fingers, every coo, and every smile will remain treasured memories that we will carry in our hearts forever. He reminded us to cherish life's smallest moments and to love with our whole hearts.

While we struggle to understand why his journey ended so soon, we find comfort in knowing that he is now at peace, wrapped in God's eternal love, watching over those who miss him so deeply.

Our sweet baby boy, you were loved beyond words from your very first breath, and you will continue to be loved beyond measure until our last. You will forever be our greatest blessing, our precious angel, and a part of us that can never be taken away.

Forever loved, forever missed, and forever in our hearts.

A Child's Prayer

Now I lay me down to sleep,
I pray the Lord my soul to keep.
If I should die before I wake,
I pray the Lord my soul to take.
