His Journey’s Just Begun

*Don’t think of him as gone away—
his journey’s just begun,
life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears,
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.*

Celebration OF LIFE

Franklin Delano Holloway was born and raised in Roxboro, North Carolina on February 24, 1935, to the late Jesse and Elizabeth (Lizzy) Holloway. Franklin was the fifth child of six siblings, and the last child to precede his parents and siblings.

Franklin was baptized at an early age at Jones Chapel Baptist Church under the leadership of Reverend U.R. Booker.

Franklin was educated in Roxboro, North Carolina at Person County school system until graduation. After graduation, Franklin moved to Philadelphia, PA in 1955 to seek employment and to be closer to his four siblings who all lived in Philly.

Franklin was married to the late Gloria Holloway for fifty plus years. They married in 1957 and from that union two daughters were born. Cheryl Denise and Sheila Annette. Gloria preceded him in death in June of 2008.

Frank is the name everyone called him and was employed at Smith Kline Pharmaceuticals in 1982 as a chemical operator, and he retired in 1996 due to legs and knees complications.

Franklin was always a hardworking man, who provided well for his wife and children. Frank believed in a honest day's work and pay, he loved going to his flea markets on the weekends, making homemade wine and beer, family gatherings especially during the holidays and spending quality time with his family especially his brother Jesse and his family who lived right directly across the street. Frank also loved listening to gospel, jazz, country, and blue grass music.

Franklin Delano Holloway precedes in death by his father, Jesse Sr. and mother Lizzy, wife Gloria, two brothers, William, and Jesse and three sisters, Carlene, Norma (Norge) and Marie, his favorite nephew Butch.

Frank, also known as "Slick" by his brother Jesse is survived by his caregiver daughter, Cheryl and daughter Sheila from across the miles. Five grandkids, Aarika (Alex), Ciana, Stasia Steven and Austin. Six great grands, Christiana, Noah, Christion, Nicholas, Sebastian and Savannah, one brother-in-law Marshall Brown and Leane and Rudy and boys. A host of nieces and nephews, neighbors and friends.
