

Miss Me

But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low;
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss Me – But let me go.
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know;
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss Me – But let me go.

Perhaps you sent a lovely card
Or sat quietly in loving support,
Perhaps you sent a lovely floral piece,
If so, we saw it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friends could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
May God Bless You!
