

Charles “Darrell” Rockhold Jr, 62, of Amarillo, passed peacefully on April 2, 2026.

Darrell was born on October 28, 1963, in Amarillo, Texas, to Charles Sr and Barbara (Barr) Rockhold. He was an incredibly hard worker and spent most of his life driving a truck in multiple areas of the freight transportation field. In his free time, Darrell loved to be outdoors. He was an avid fisherman and enjoyed spending time on the lake with his dad hoping to land the big catch of the day. But even if they didn’t catch a single fish, they were just at peace on the water.

Darrell is survived by his father, Charles and his wife Anna, mother, Barbara Baldwin Webb, and his sister, Darlene Seago and husband Rodney.
