To My Lifelong Friend Fatts

Fat you was all I had, you were my lead.
When I couldn't see, you were my eyes,
planting the seed.

You were my brain when my thoughts
weren't right,

Guiding me through every darkest night.
When I didn't want to hear the world's harsh sound,

It was in your presence that peace I found.
You were my body when motivation ceased,
In your strength, my burdens were released.

Rhoderius, you were the rock on which I'd lean, The anchor in my life's complex scene.
You were my heart, the beat that kept me
whole,

You were my everything, the essence of my soul.

Though you have journeyed to a place
unseen, The love you gave remains ever green.

Your light, your wisdom, still will be my guide. For in my heart, you'll forever reside.
Rest in peace, my love, your work on earth
is done,

A life so cherished, a victory won.

We'll miss your presence, your memory
we'll treasure,

Loving you always,
beyond any measure.
